

Here are your choices for town councillor, Ward 1 voters

Mike Cluett

Mike Cluett

Biography: Cluett is a sales representative for an office supplies company. He's also the chairperson for Milton's 150th anniversary committee.

Platform:

- Increase safety by supporting things like speed limit reductions
- Push for more sidewalks, lighting and stop signs around schools and parks to protect children

- Ensure development respects the Niagara Escarpment and includes new parks and play areas

- Hold the line on the municipal tax rate for the next council term.

Contact: (905) 878-1327, mike@mikecluett.ca and www.mikecluett.ca.

Rick Day

Biography: Day has been on town council since 1974 and was also elected to Oakville council in 1970 before municipal boundaries changed. He owns a business, tax and real estate legal practice.

Platform:

- Slow down growth, phase it in and have some density reduced

Rick Day

- Keep the Town and Region onside to complete necessary road upgrades

- Ensure the Town and its resources are in the residents' corner as the applications for proposed power plants progress

- Do the same when it comes to the Region's energy-from-waste proposal.

Contact: (905) 878-3953, (905) 844-8581, rick@daylaw.ca and www.daylaw.ca.

Greg Nelson

Biography: Nelson ran for council in 2003. He's the manager of a service department at a car dealership in Mississauga and volunteers on local committees and groups.

Platform:

- Encourage all parties to let infrastructure develop at a more realistic pace to keep up with growth
- Protect and develop a thriving arts community
- Establish and increase services that help the younger population
- Draft and approve a bylaw to prohibit bullying and harassment in public places.

Contact: (905) 875-3663 and gregnelson.milton@sympatico.ca.

Brian Penman

Biography: Penman has been on council since 1977. He's a retired Oakville Trafalgar High School teacher and is also currently the chair of Conservation Halton.

Platform:

- Demonstrate fiscal restraint to keep taxes and debt financing under control
- Ensure the Town offers a level of service the community expects and deserves without getting into financial difficulty
- Manage growth
- Help Milton become the greenest community in Canada.
