

AE2 peewees' offence red hot one game and ice cold the next

It was feast or famine for the AE2 peewees over their last two outings.

At Milton Sports Centre Saturday evening, the Winterhawks flexed their scoring muscles — lighting the lamp six times in the second period en route to annihilating the Erin Shamrocks 11-1.

Drew McMillen enjoyed the biggest slice of the offensive pie with two goals and four assists, while J.R. Sanderson was right behind with a hat-trick and two helpers.

Joel Chudleigh also stood out with a pair of goals and an assist, while Dylan Burkholder tallied twice as well and Thomas Chuchmach, Jake Leblond and Spencer Umpleby all drew three assists.

Chipping in single deposits were Kevin Pinard and call-up Spencer Lussier.

Two nights later in Dundas, the Winterhawks' scoring touch all but completely disappeared, costing them a 4-1 setback — their first loss in six games.

Milton needed a late goal by Chudleigh just to break the shutout, with Michael Welanc rock solid between the pipes to keep things respectable.

The two-game split puts the AE2 peewees at 4-3-2 in league play heading into tomorrow evening's showdown with Fergus at MSC. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Midgets bounce back

A fierce finish at Memorial Arena Monday night allowed the AA midgets to rebound from just their second defeat of the season.

The Winterhawks struck three times in the final frame to dispose of the Brampton Battalion 4-1. Jeff Lynch's second goal of the night stood up as the game winner, while Mike Powers and Daniel

Kearns counted a powerplay marker and short-handed empty netter respectively at the tail end of the evening.

Lynch finished up with three points, while assisting on goals two and three was Geoff Strank.

Lucas Reid delivered some sharp cage work, particularly through the second period when he turned aside all 11 shots fired his way.

Now 6-2-1, the AA midgets began a two-game road trip last night in Brampton and head to Burlington tomorrow to start a home-and-home series with the Eagles.

Minor peewees denied win

The AA minor peewees got their point across at Memorial Arena Sunday afternoon. Only thing is, they could have easily earned more than one.

However, a Brampton Battalion goal with 1:40 remaining spoiled those victory hopes, as the Winterhawks had to settle for a 2-2 stalemate. Adam Poirier and Josh Bensusan did the scoring, while Michael Running provided solid goaltending.

The previous afternoon in Brampton, David Laing broke a 3-3 tie in the third period with his second deposit of the game to kick off the home-and-home series on a high note. He also picked up an assist, while contributing two-point efforts were Ryan Melanson and Colin Maltby. Tristan Kivac backstopped the Winterhawks to victory.

The two-game unbeaten streak lifted the AA minor peewees to 4-6-2. They're back at Memorial Sunday at 4 p.m. to face Burlington.
