Please give to Christmas Bureau Fund

One by one, wrapped presents will soon begin gathering under skirted trees, and it'll be time to pick up a large turkey and all the trimmings.

The scent of freshly-baked pumpkin pies will fill the air, and Christmas tunes will be heard on radio stations.

But this won't be the case in every home in Milton. For some families, Christmastime won't be all that different from any other time of the year, because there's no extra money for presents and special meals.

It's these households that the local Salvation Army will be taking special notice of, as it does every year. Its goal is to make sure every family in town has a proper Christmas dinner, and that every child and youth has presents under the tree.

That's where The Champion's Christmas Bureau Fund comes in.

Each year for the past 25 years, The Champion has encouraged Miltonians to contribute to its fund in support of the local Salvation Army.

"I'm really excited to start this again," said organizer and Champion receptionist Sheena Cameron, who has been at the helm of the fundraiser since it began.

Residents can bring non-perishable food items and unwrapped toys to The Champion's office at 875 Main St. E., where two big bins are waiting to be filled.

Monetary donations are also welcome, particularly with this year's ambitious goal — $25,000. Last year, $21,418 was collected.

Cameron said a couple of donations have already been received, which is an encouraging sign.

Each year, donations come in from young and old residents alike, she said, adding Miltonians have been extremely faithful in their giving.

Cameron said she's hoping the new residents — who may be hearing about the fund for the first time — will also get involved.

Man robs Ramada Inn

Police are looking for a suspect after the Ramada Inn on Chisholm Drive was robbed Sunday afternoon.

Just after 4:30 p.m., a man walked into the lobby of the hotel wearing a black balaclava.

He approached the reception desk and motioned as if he had a weapon, although none was seen.

The man demanded cash from the reception clerk and was given an undisclosed amount from the till. He then left.

The incident was recorded on video. The suspect is described as white, about 20 to 30, five-foot-10 with an average build. He was wearing a white, lightweight jacket and blue jeans.

Anyone with information is asked to call Halton Regional Police Det. Const. Kelly Daunter at (905) 925-4747, ext. 2454 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).
