

Midgets move into first by dumping last-place Eagles

And the wins just keep on coming.

Showing both their scoring punch and defensive prowess this past week, the AA midgets secured two more victories to push their unbeaten streak to seven games and lift their league record to 11-2-2. This pushed them into a first-place tie with the Orangeville Flyers.

Flexing their offensive muscles at Memorial Arena Wednesday night, the Winterhawks got multi-point efforts from seven different players on the way to grounding the Burlington Eagles 8-3.

Jeff Lynch led with two goals and three assists, while Daniel Kearns tallied twice and added a pair of helpers. Doug Kay had two goals and an assist, with Mark Thomson and Mike Vipond also finding the back of the net.

Joey De'Athe backstopped the hosts to victory.

Coming off a solid 2-1 showing at last weekend's Stoney Creek Tournament, Milton continued their impressive Tri County run with a 3-0 whitewash of the Caledon Hawks Monday night.

Lucas Reid earned the goose egg — the Winterhawks' first this season — with an 18-save performance, while his teammates snapped an evening-long stalemate with three goals in the last five minutes.

Kay and Vipond scored just 22 seconds apart before Nick Gauvreau put the game on ice about a minute later.

The AA midgets have just one more game standing in the way of them going unbeaten in league play this month — Wednesday night's home-ice tilt with the Flamborough Sabres. Game time is 9 p.m.

Minor peewees prevail

For the second time in as many meetings, the minor peewee AA Winterhawks soared just a little higher in than their fellow birds of prey.

A near-perfect performance from Michael Running and a couple of powerplay goals allowed Milton to eclipse the Caledon Hawks 2-1 Sunday afternoon at Memorial Arena.

Running came heartbreakingly close to securing the

Wrestling trio in town

A wrestling trio will slam its way into Milton Mall tomorrow afternoon.

TNA's D-Ray 3000, Sirelda and A1 — whom fans know best as a member of the organization's now disbanded Team Canada — will descend on Gamedom for a two-hour appearance, starting at noon.

Fans will have a chance to meet the wrestlers and get personalized autographed photos for $10 each.

Tomorrow's event is the first of several in the works for local promotion company Goodwin Sports Etc., which is expanding beyond the card shows it's done in the past and hoping to bring a lot more wrestlers to town.

shutout, with the visitors spoiling that bid with a mere 10 seconds remaining. Dylan Lee and Colin Maltby did the scoring, with assists going to Taylor McVey, Ryan Melanson and Kyle Waters.

The narrow win followed two other close encounters last week — with the Winterhawks edging the host Ancaster Avalanche 3-2 November 13 and then falling 4-2 to the Guelph Jr. Storm November 16 at Milton Sports Centre.

Maltby, Josh Bensusan and David Laing dented the twine in the road win, while scoring against the Jr. Storm were McVey and Jack Goncz.

Now 6-9-2, the AA minor peewees are back in action Sunday afternoon at Memorial Arena against the Flamborough Sabres. Game time is 4 p.m.

Atoms' woes continue

The AA atoms' offensive woes continued this past weekend, and so too did their recent skid.

The Winterhawks' losing streak now stands at six games, following a 3-1 loss to the host Guelph Jr. Storm Sunday afternoon. Rourke Ferguson scored the lone goal for the visitors — just the fifth during their current funk.

Connor Hallyburton was solid between the pipes to keep things close, while Justin Browne had one of his best showings all year — particularly in terms of physical play.

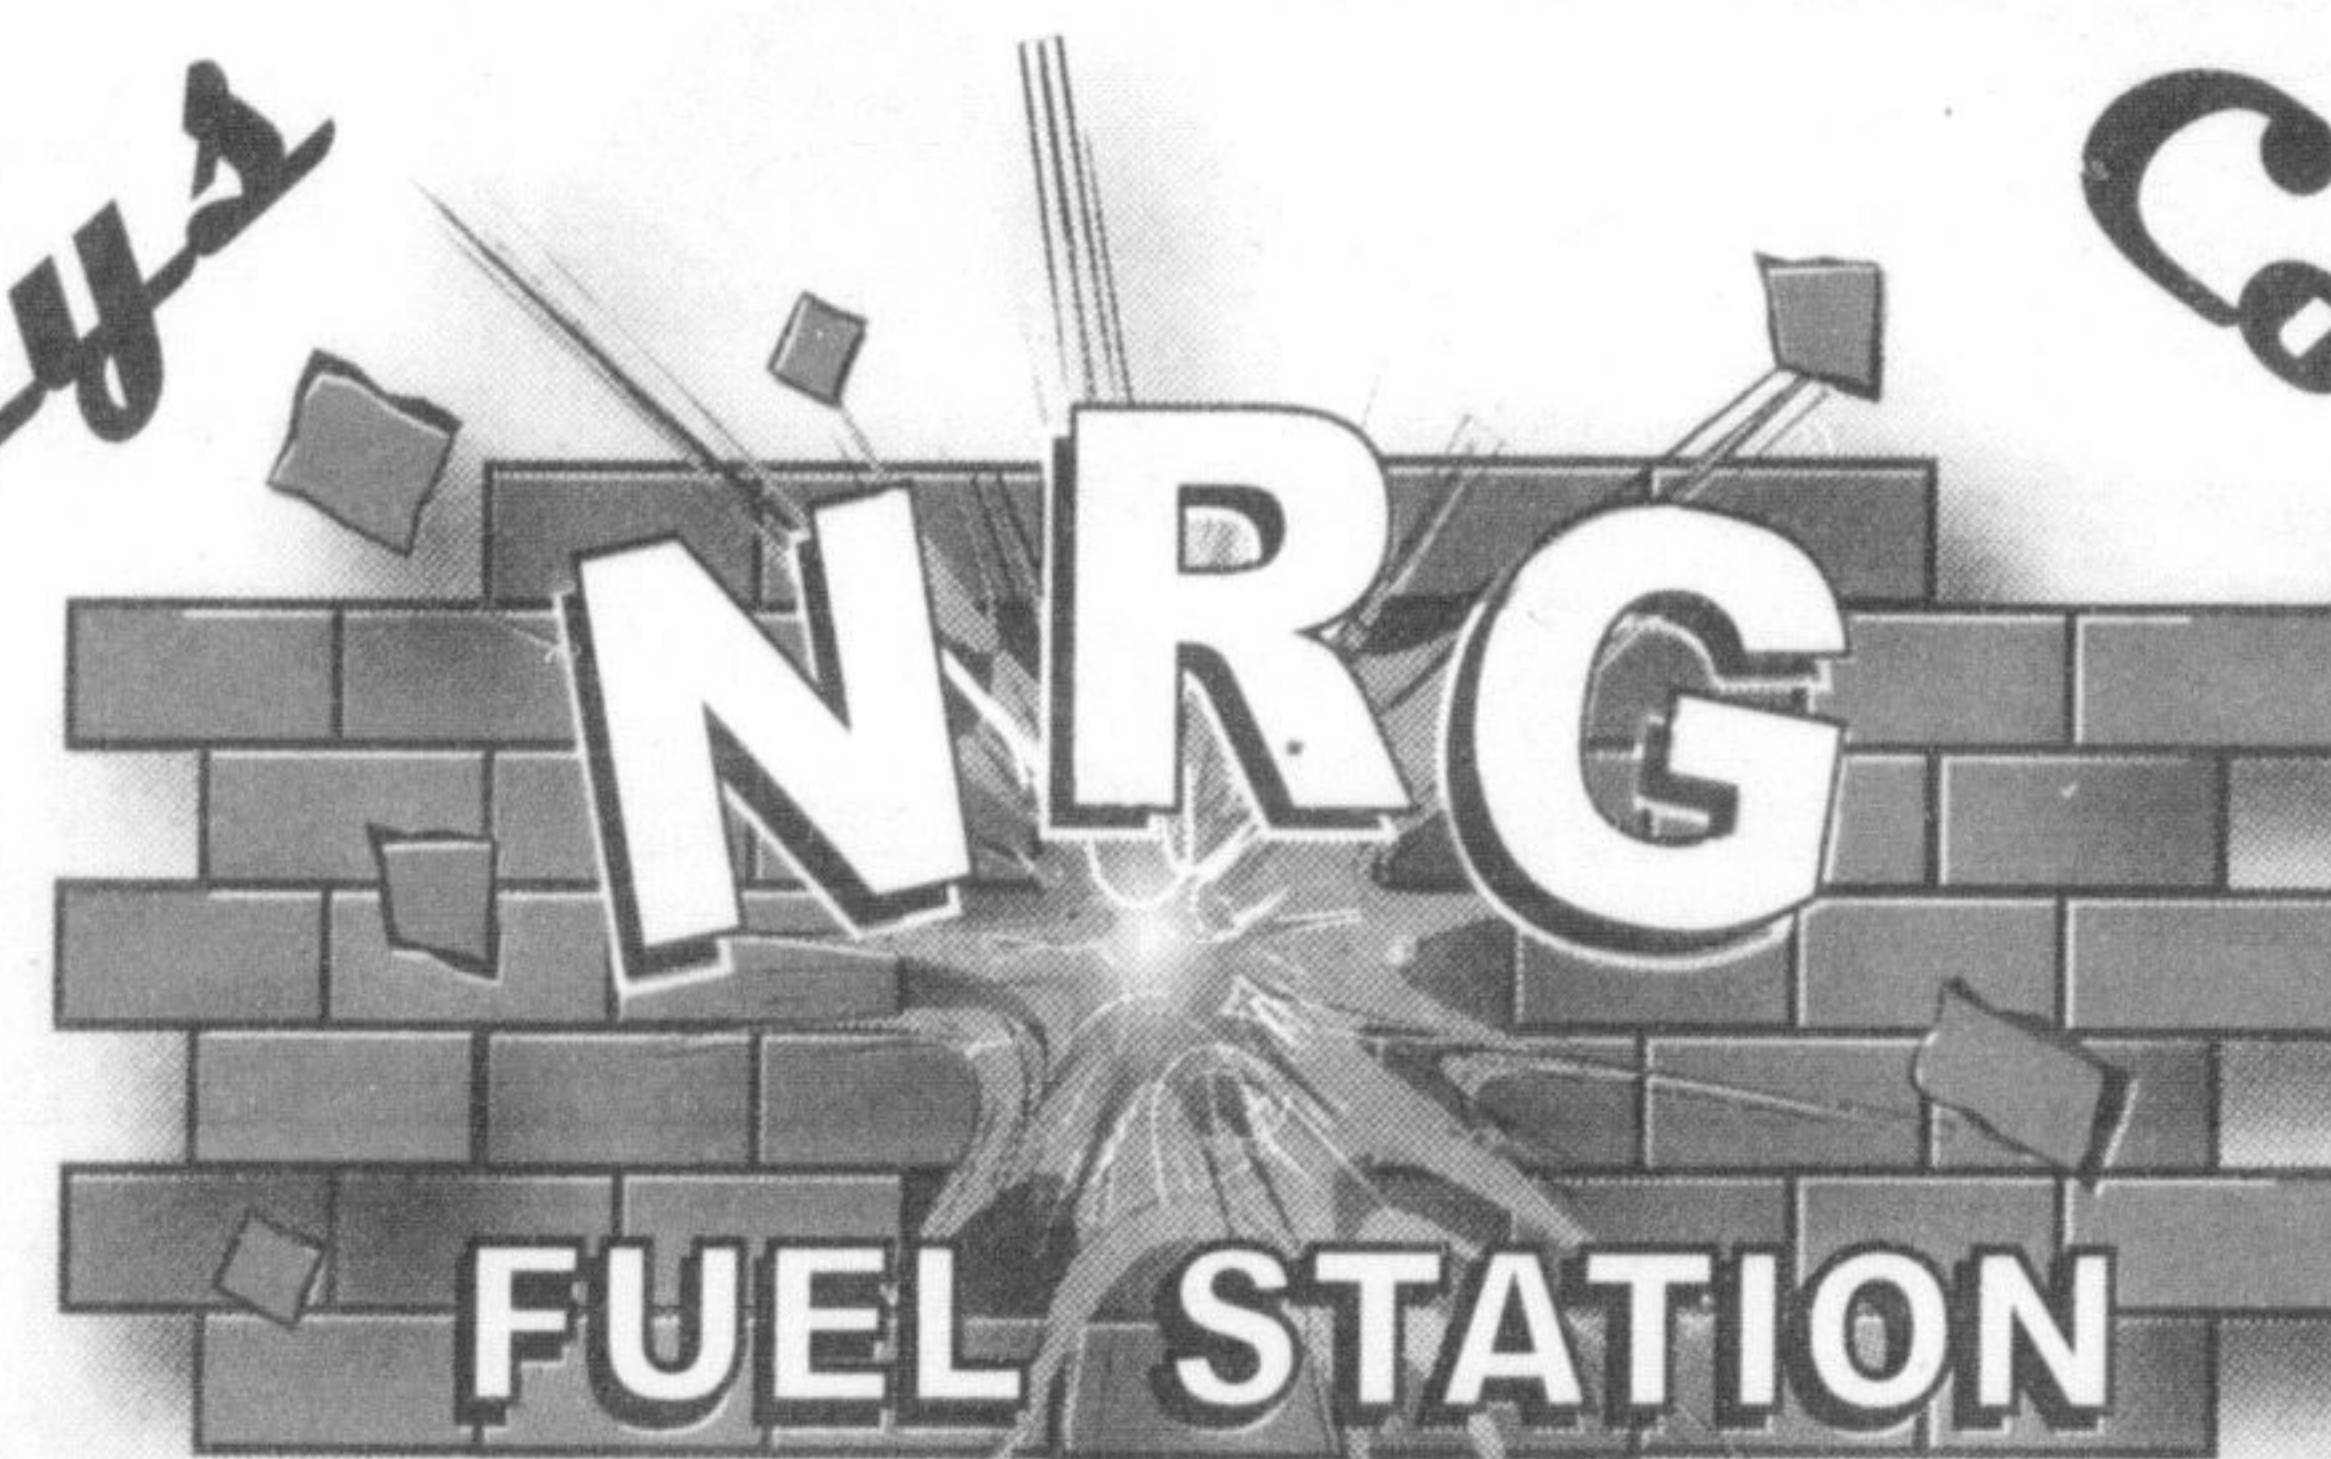

Equally effective the previous evening at Milton Sports Centre, Nicholas Hoffman gave up just one goal. Unfortunately that was enough for the Caledon Hawks to eke out the victory, as the hosts were blanked.

Now 6-14, the AA atoms hope to put the brakes on their recent lack of production this coming weekend at the Guelph Powerplay Tournament.
