Be a Santa to a Senior this Christmas

By Sabrina Byrnes
 SPECIAL TO THE CHAMPION

As families and their children gather around Christmas morning to open gifts and celebrate the holidays together, there are many members of the community who are left to celebrate alone, including some of our seniors.

"They're the one jewel of our society that tends to be forgotten about," said Tom Chuchmach, co-owner of Home Instead Senior Care, which is running a program called Be a Santa to a Senior for a second year throughout Halton.

The program sees residents choose presents for seniors in their community, and allows the seniors to name their Christmas wish items.

In Milton, about 200 gifts will be distributed at Allendale long-term care facility to residents as well as clients of its two day programs. Gifts will also be given to residents at a subsidized housing complex.

The program, which was launched November 1, will run until December 9, when a gift-wrapping party will be held at the Oakville Town Hall in the Atrium from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Be a Santa to a Senior program, which is in partnership with the Willow Foundation, has teamed up with several retailers across Halton.

Last year, about 1,100 gifts were given out. This year, that number will be closer to 1,300.

This is how it works. A Christmas tree is placed in a participating store and is decorated with paper ornaments that have specific gift requests written on them.

Shoppers can take the ornaments off the tree, purchase the gift and leave it unwrapped at the customer service desk. The gifts will later be picked up and wrapped at the gift-wrapping party.

In Milton, participating partners are Wal-Mart, Zellers, A Country Mile on Main Street and Royal LePage
