CHAMPIONS: Above, the W.I. Dick girls volleyball team proudly displays both the north Halton and all-Halton championship pennants they secured last week in Tier 2 play. W.I. Dick beat Hawthorne Village 8-25, 25-16, 15-12 for the North Halton title last Tuesday and then out-distanced Burlington's C.H. Norton 25-20, 25-19 the following evening for the regional pennant. At left, members of the Sam Sherratt boys volleyball team are all smiles after their own Tier 2 north Halton triumph last Tuesday, when they beat Chris Hadfield 25-17, 12-25, 15-13.

Atoms reach tournament semis

The AA atoms' offensive woes resurfaced at a rather inopportune time this past weekend.

Unable to build off a 5-0 whitewash of the Stratford Warriors the previous afternoon that put them in the Guelph Powerplay Tournament semifinals, the Winterhawks couldn't clear the last remaining hurdle to championship play Sunday morning — falling 2-0 to the North Toronto Wild.

Robert James provided a solid two-way effort, but much like they have in recent weeks, his teammates just couldn't capitalize on their opportunities.

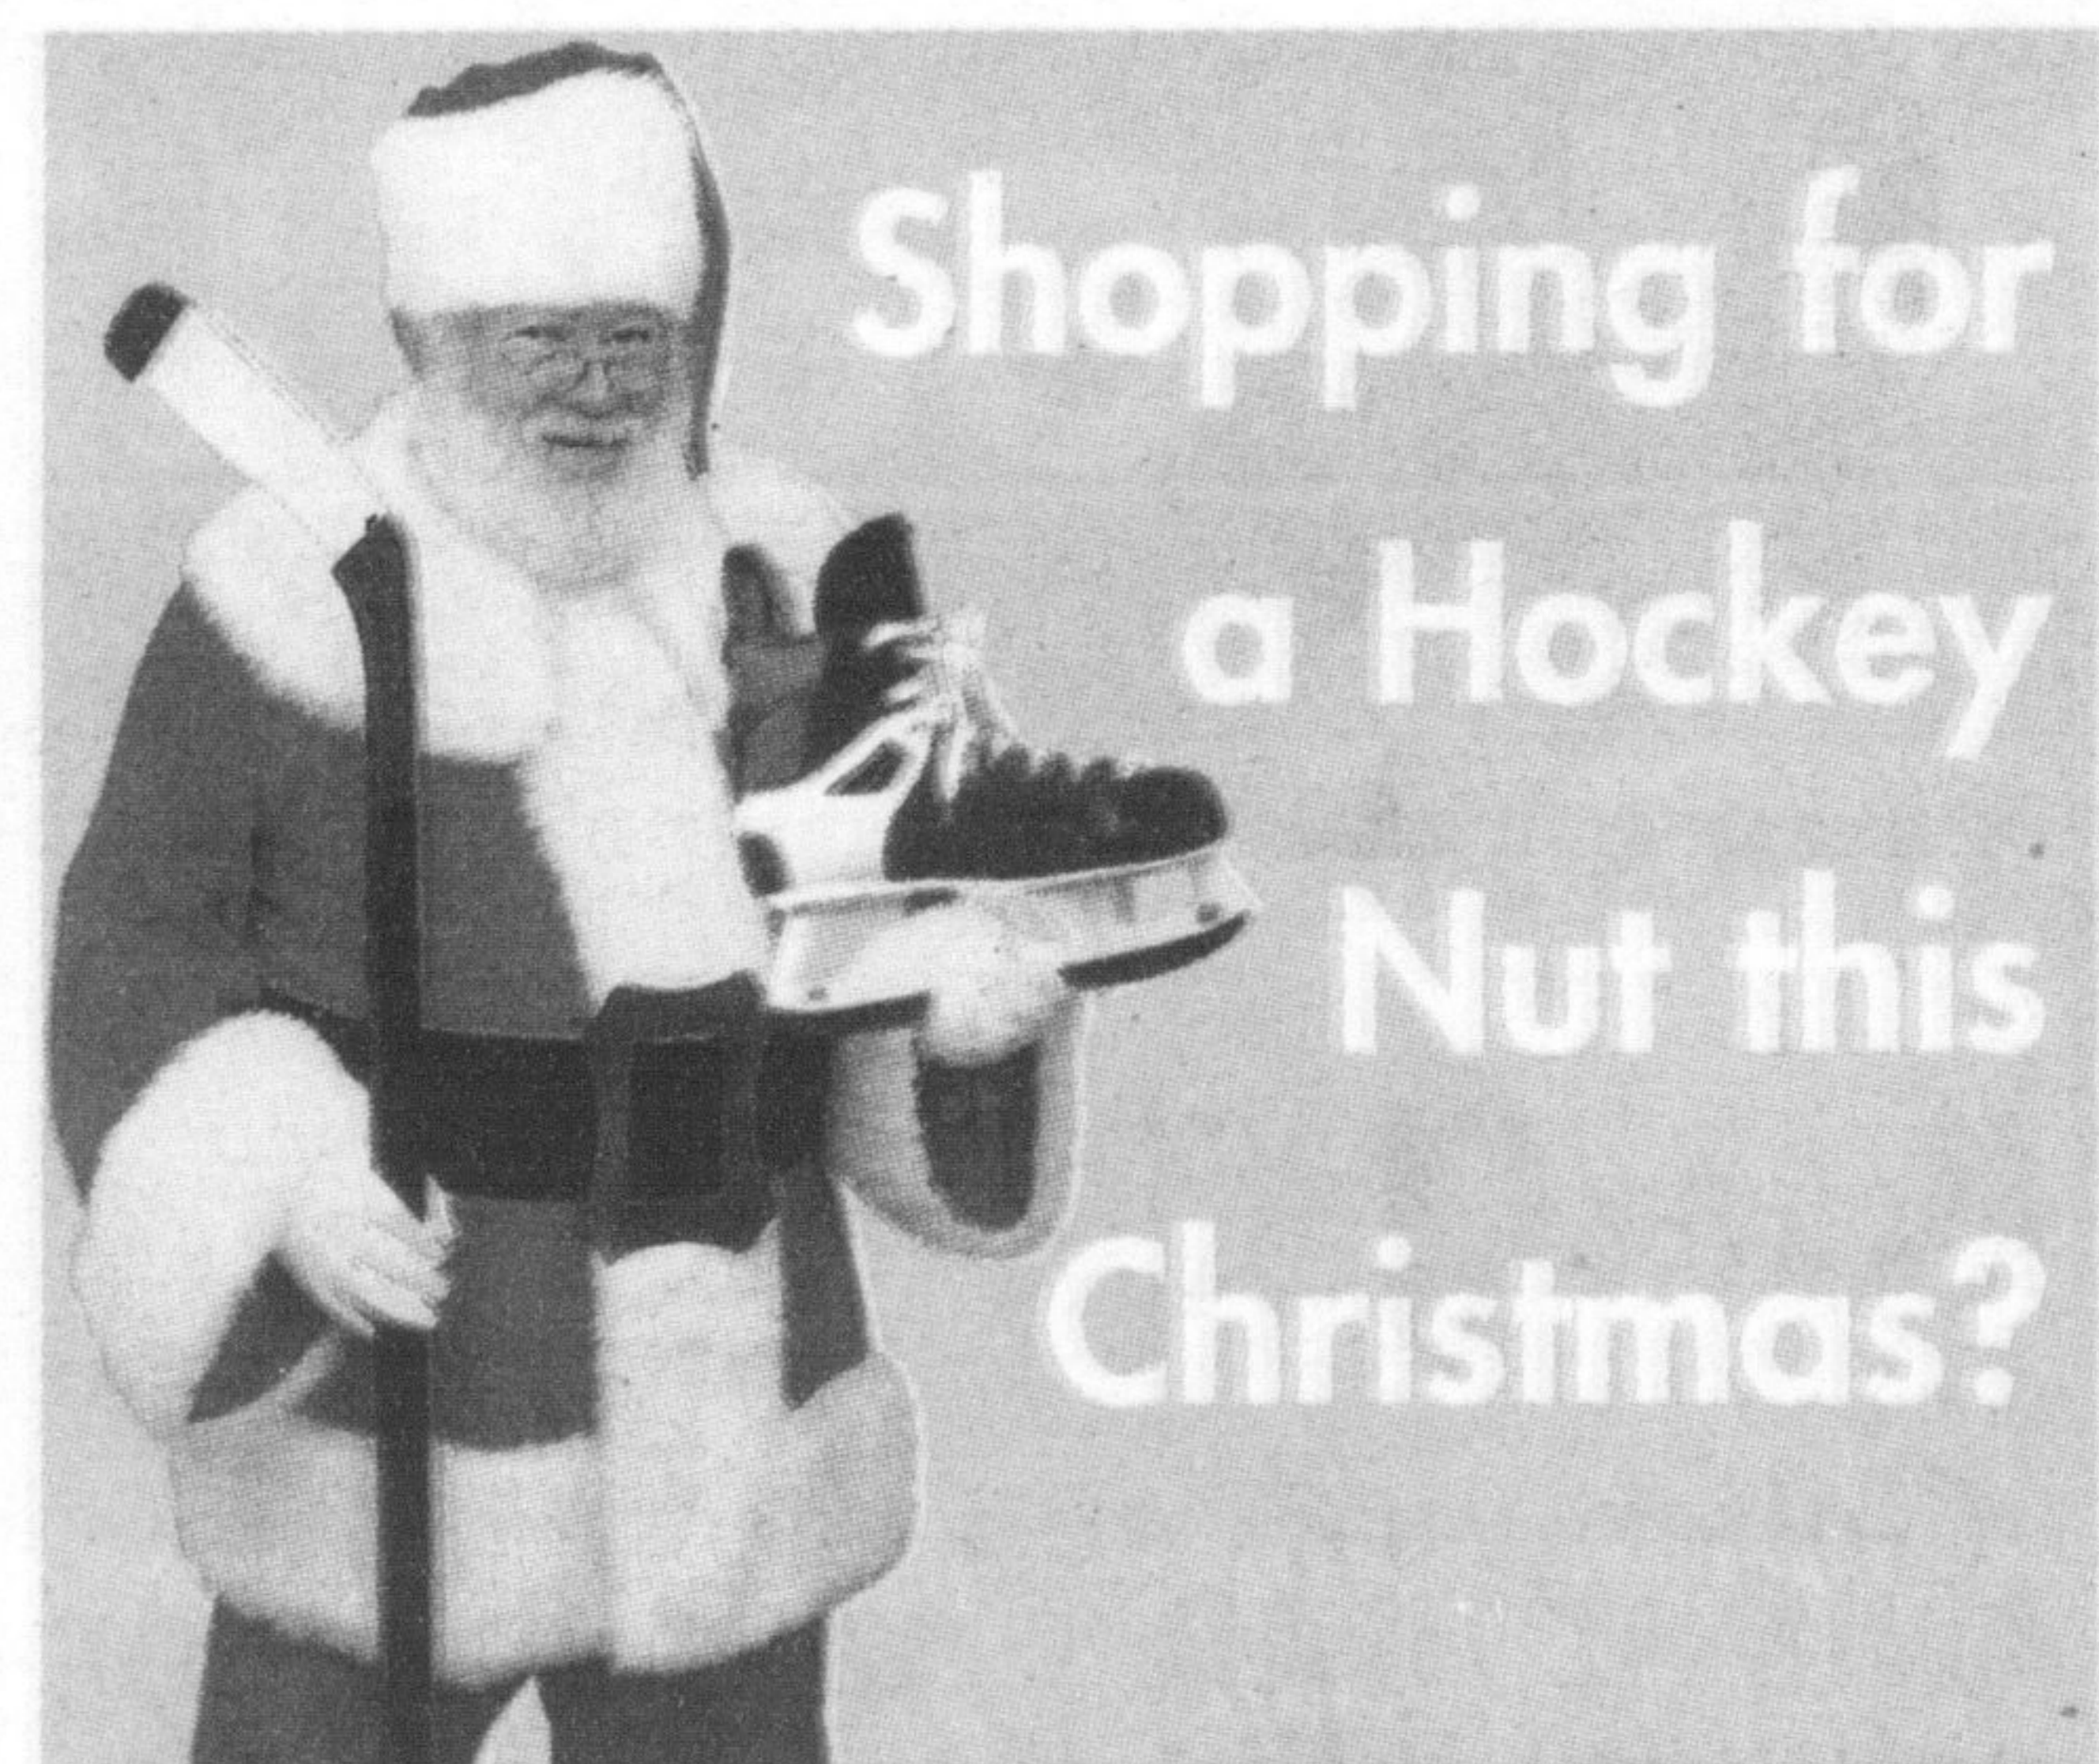

Matthew Gooding and Jacob Quinn each had a goal and an assist against Stratford, while Ben Preisner drew two helpers to help Milton finish round-robin play at 1-1-1.

Also lighting the lamp were Robert James, Marcus Kotyk and Marcus Miller.

The Winterhawks lost 2-0 to North Toronto in round one as well, and followed that up with a 2-2 stalemate versus the Peterborough Nationals — with goals coming from Preisner and Sam Robson.

The AA atoms are currently on a six-game losing streak in league play, which they'll be looking to snap Saturday afternoon at Milton Sports Centre against the neighbouring Georgetown Raiders. Game time is 5 p.m.
