

Library employees seeking book donations

Milton Public Library workers are hoping to spread the joy of reading this Christmas.

The workers, part of CUPE local 4366, are collecting new kids' books for the Salvation Army's Christmas hampers.

"Being library workers, we of course love books and believe passionately in the value of reading for children of all ages," said an organizer of the book collection. "It is our wish that all children of Milton will wake up Christmas morning to find new books as well as new toys under the tree."

Donations can be dropped off in the collection box across from the information desk in the library.
