

FACES of Milton

AROUND TOWN: Clockwise from top left: Milton Fire Department retired District Chief Ron Townsend proudly displays the chief's trumpet communicator award he was presented with for his 26-and-a-half years of service with the department. Astronaut Col. Chris Hadfield presents the annual bursary that bears his name to recipient Aaryn Fraser. Members of the Milton Curling Club are all smiles during the latest round of Milton Community Fund cheque presentations. Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 197 (Acton) members (from left) David Cook, Tom Grant and Joyce Buchanan present a cheque for $1,500 to Milton Site COO Lisa Shiozaki and Milton District Hospital Foundation Director of Development Donna McLaughlin for the hospital foundation. The nearby Legion branch made identical donations to the Georgetown and Guelph hospitals as well. Student options program worker Alicia Dorey joins executive director Ellis Katsof at the opening of the Milton office for Transitions for Youth. Five-year-old Blaise Fergus digs in to clean out her pumpkin at the annual pumpkin carving day at the mall, which served as a fundraiser for the Milton Community Resource Centre.

