FEATURED PLAYER OF THE WEEK

JOHN RAGGIUNTI JERSEY #55

Birthday: Mar. 24, 1986
 Hometown: Woodbridge, ON Position: Forward
 Height: 6' - 0"
 Weight: 185 lbs

John Raggiunti doesn't need to look far for athletic inspiration.

While his father — John Sr. — doesn't have any kind of hockey background, his strong work ethic in martial arts and commitment to fitness serves as a positive influence for the seasoned junior winger.

"My mom was actually the one that got me into hockey, but my dad eventually took the reigns and has been doing so ever since," said the IceHawks' assistant captain, a second-year student at York University. "He's always at the games and gives me plenty of advice and support. I'm very grateful for that."

In turn, Milton's young charges are appreciative of the leadership and experience #55 brings to the ice and dressing room. A third-year Jr. A veteran and the team's oldest player — by just three days — it falls on Raggiunti to be a stabilizing presence for the rebuilding locals.

That's a role he doesn't take lightly.

"There's a lot to learn and pressure to perform when you first come into the league, and it means a lot to me to be one of the guys looked upon to keep morale up."

He's certainly living up to that challenge, according to general manager Keith Pandovski.

"John's a very mature player who helps create a positive attitude in the dressing room," remarked the IceHawks' GM.

Looking back to his rookie season in the Provincial Jr. A League — with the Oshawa Legionnaires — Raggiunti figures the biggest thing junior freshmen have to learn is to rely more on team chemistry and less on individual skill.

"You can't just carry it up the ice and do it all yourself anymore," he stressed. "You've got to let some of those natural habits go and learn how to play a different game."
