Manslaughter case back in court Jan. 5

An Orillia man charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of a Milton dentist will return to court January 5 in Barrie.

Adam Holland, 22, appeared at Superior Court of Justice in Barrie last Friday when the next date was set for a continuation of the pre-trial.

Dr. David Dumencu, 42, was found lying unconscious with head injuries in the parking lot of an Orillia-area tavern in June 2004. He was taken to an area hospital and died two days later.

Stay off rivers

Parents are being urged to warn their children to stay off frozen rivers and ponds in light of the 11-year-old Scarborough boy who recently crashed through an icy river and drowned.

Frozen lakes and streams won't be safe to walk on until there's a prolonged period of extremely cold weather, said fire chief Larry Brassard. That probably won't be for another few weeks.

"It'll be well into the new year before we can even think of going on frozen surfaces," said Brassard.
