

Literacy North Halton is seeking volunteer board members

Do you have a few hours to spare each month? Then you may want to join Literacy North Halton's board, which currently needs more members.

The organization is seeking individuals with experience in marketing, fundraising and an interest in adult literacy. The board meets once per month on Tuesday evenings. Becoming a member would require three to six hours of volunteering each month. For more information and application forms call (905) 873-2200.
