

Police trying to track down break-in suspects

Halton Regional Police are investigating a break-in at a pharmacy.

Shortly before 6 a.m. December 17, suspects smashed the glass door of the professional building at 311 Commercial St. Thieves targeted Miltowne Pharmacy, which is located within the building.

They forced open the locked narcotics drawer and stole $10,000 worth of prescription drugs that included morphine, codeine and OxyContin.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter,
