

Your Invitation To Worship

Another Way of Looking At It

Perspective, or how you look at something, significantly impacts upon how you live your life. Too few can see the bigger picture of life. As a result, attitudes that ought to be positive have been negatively affected. Take a fresh look at your surroundings!

If you find it hard to sleep tonight because your bed is too uncomfortable;

Just remember the homeless family who has no bed to lie in.

Should you find yourself stuck in traffic; don't despair.

There are people in this world for whom driving is an unheard of privilege.

Should you have a bad day at work;

Think of the man who has been out of work for the last three months.

Should you despair over a relationship gone bad;

Think of the person who has never known what it's like to love and be loved in return.

Should you grieve the passing of another weekend;

Think of the woman in dire straits, working two jobs, putting in twelve hours a day, seven days a week, to make enough money to feed her family

Should your car break down, leaving you miles away from assistance and you forgot your mobile phone;

Think of the paraplegic who would love the opportunity to take that walk.

Should you notice a new gray hair in the mirror;

Think of the cancer patient in chemotherapy who wishes she had hair to examine.

Should you find yourself at a loss and pondering what life is all about and what your purpose is and what you can do to make a difference;

Be thankful, there are those who didn't live long enough to get the opportunity.

Should you find yourself the victim of another's bitterness, ignorance, smallness or insecurity;

Remember, things could be worse. You could be that person!!!

Learn to take a long range look at life. Steven Covey, author of the Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, put it this way: begin with the end in mind.

Living in the light of eternal perspective will have great impact on the decisions you make today. Think about the legacy that you are leaving. Consider how you will be remembered. And tweak the little things today that need adjustment.
