BE MY VALENTINE

Dear Stinky poo-poo,

By the time you have seen this, I am away in the Virgin Islands and it is beloved Valentine's day. For many months now, I have had the unexpected and incredible opportunity to get to know you as a friend, boyfriend and confidante. Me being as of the wall as I am, and you being so free spirited and wild, lead us to a few difficulties that we eventually overcame during the beginning of our relationship. That doesn't mean we don't still have our times of haste; as close friends usually do, we can get on each other's bad side, but I am not complaining one bit. You do more for me than I could even ask for, and never shove it down my throat that you did it in the first place, you're generous. You include me in all of your plans and contemplate my feelings when deciding things, you're considerate. You point out the things you don't like and that I may do wrong, you're bold and open with me. You let me be exactly who I am, you're sharing and accepting. I just wanted to let you know that I have never for one second doubted that we are both good people, good for each other and crazy teenagers who have fallen in love. I am lucky and exceptionally happy to have shared all the times we have so far, and am anticipating and looking forward to all the ones ahead. Happy Valentines baby, I can't wait to see you.

Love from, Your baby girl
