Psychic makes predictions as fair hits town

Event starts today
at Ramada Inn

Crystal balls are being shined and tea leaves gathered in anticipation of this weekend's Psychic and Holistic Fair.

The event will take place at the Ramada Inn, 161 Chisholm Dr., today from 1 to 10 p.m., tomorrow from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Admission costs $1 today, $3 tomorrow and Sunday, and $4 for a weekend pass.

The fair will include psychics, spirit photos, products, free draws and lectures.

In anticipation of the show, host Joan

McGregor has made a number of predictions for Milton.

First, McGregor said she sees a clean-up being done in the downtown area, which will include a large building coming down to make room for an apartment condo.

Next, she sees a mid-summer festival taking place in the south area of town.

"I cannot clearly see the theme, but it will really bounce," she said.

And fame's in store for a trio of young men who are currently practising their instruments in their garage, McGregor said.

"Their abilities with the music and song will win a prize at a contest held in the park this summer," she said. "Their rise to fame will begin then."

She predicted a women's group from Milton and Acton will form around Easter time to help teens having trouble finding a life path. They'll work in the areas of education and apprenticeship, and groups across Ontario will follow their lead.

The last prediction will hopefully be avoided, McGregor said. She sees a fire at the back of a community centre, started accidentally by young smokers leaving lit cigarettes too close to paper garbage.

"I see this in July of this year," she said.

For more information on the fair, call (905) 885-9213.
