Annual Golf and Travel Show starts today

Canada's biggest consumer golf event will return for an 18th year when the Golf and Travel Show swings into the Metro Convention Centre today.

Until Sunday, there will be hundreds of vendors showcasing everything about golf under one roof, with a first-ever golf equipment swap highlighting the event, as well as an appearance by PGA pro Hank Haney March 10.

Another main attraction of the weekend will be the opportunity to go head-to-head with a number of sports personalities — including Toronto Argonauts Orlando Steinauer and Chris Hardy and ex-Hamilton Tiger Cat general manager Neil Lumsden — in a Nintendo Celebrity Best Drive Charity Challenge.

Also part of the weekend showcase will be hands-on demonstrations to inspire both birdie and bogey players, plenty of give-a-ways and the Kids Zone — where the first 200 visitors each day receive a free putter.

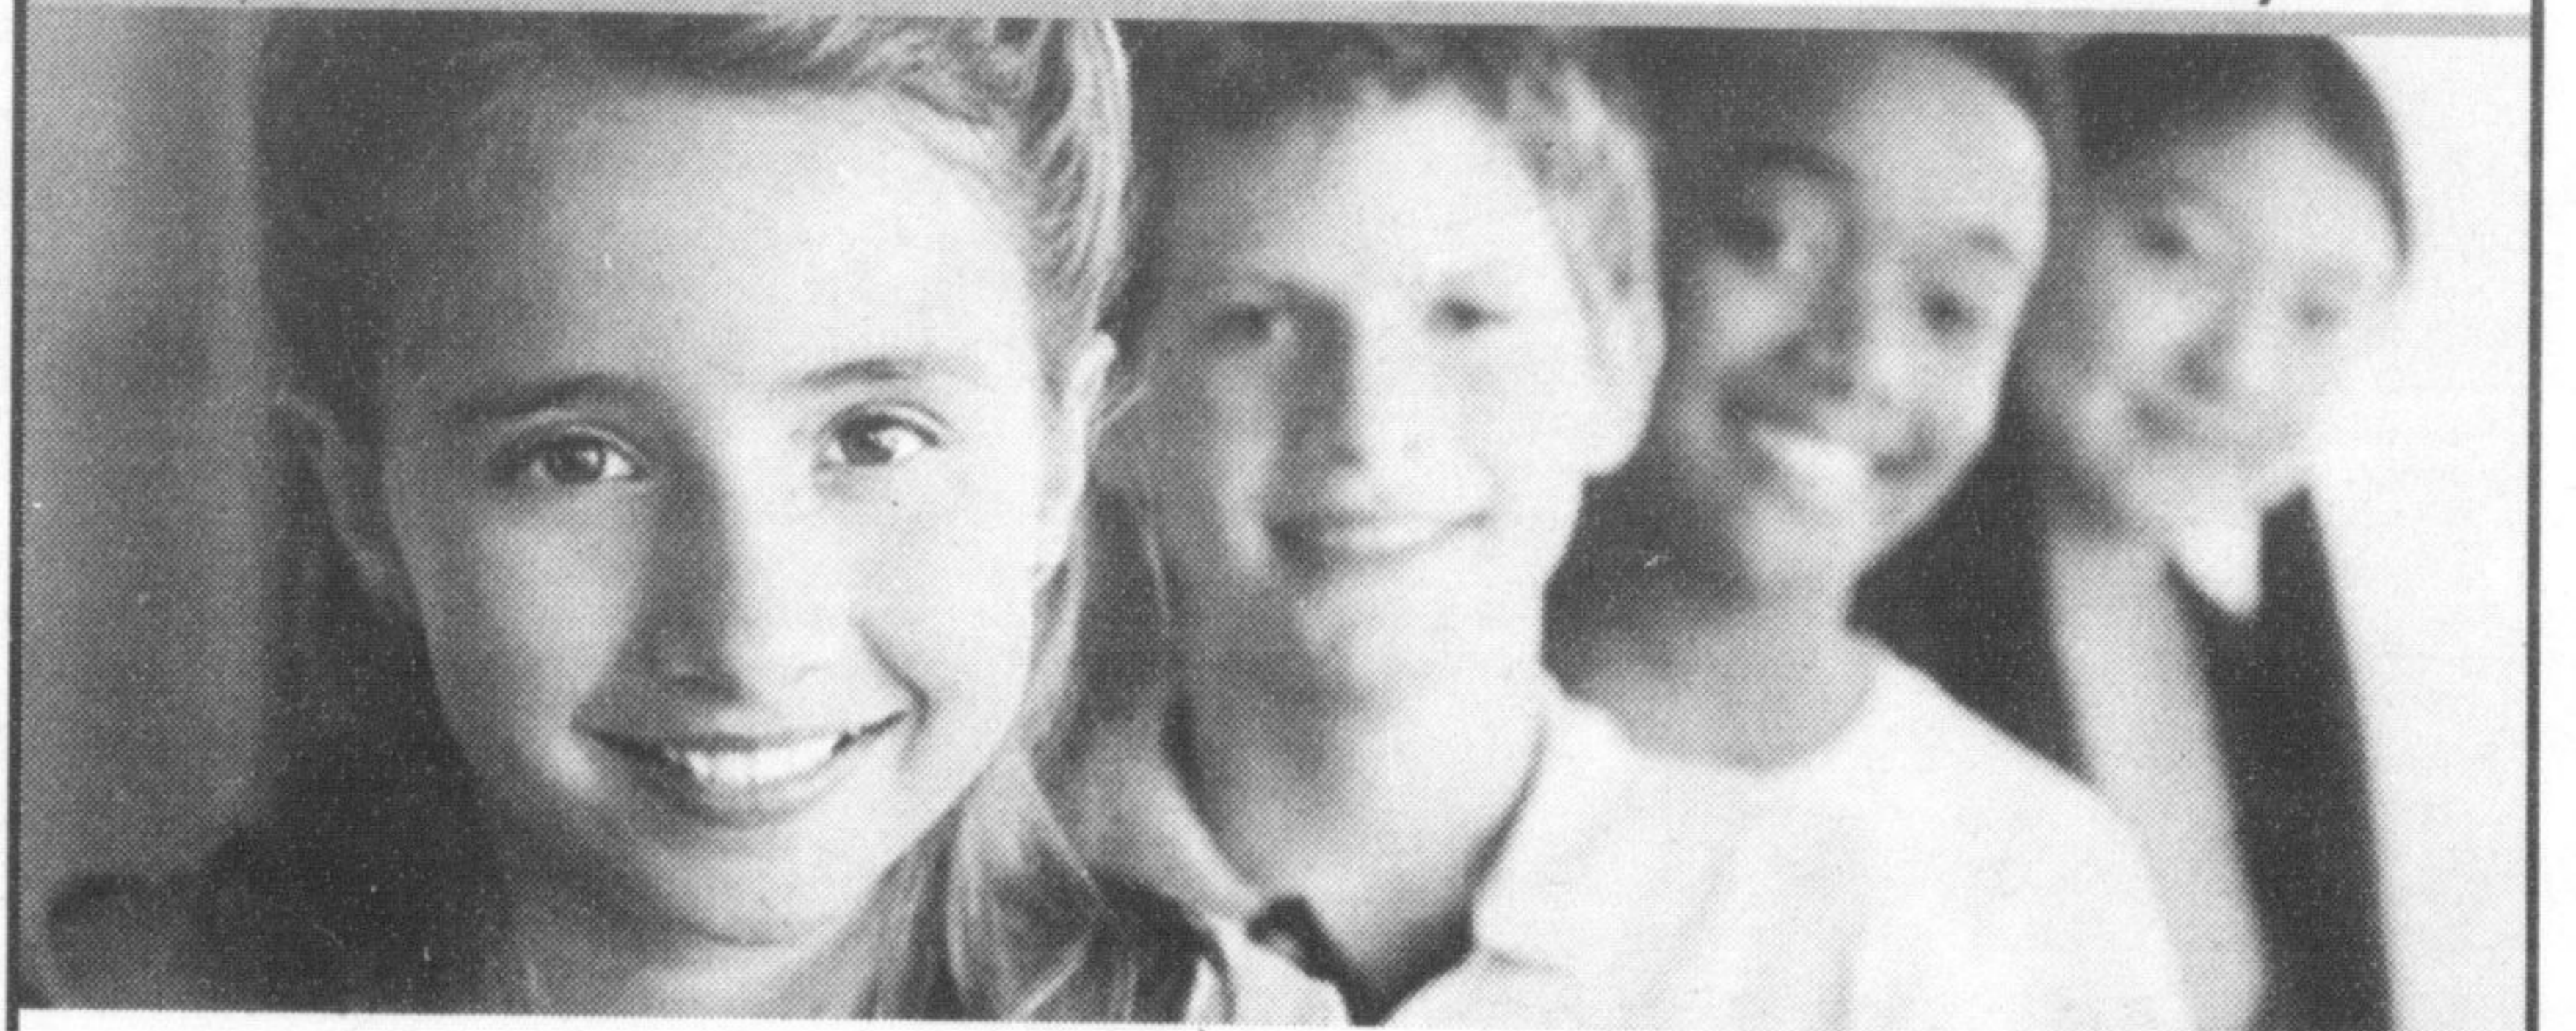

Show times are as follows: March 9, noon to 8 p.m., March 10, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and March 11, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Admission costs $15 for adults or $8 for children aged 12 to 17. Kids under 12 get in for free when accompanied by an adult.

Twilight golfers — 50 years and up — pay just $10 after 2 p.m. daily.

For more information on the event, visit www.torontogolfshow.com.
