"It allows me to give back to the community where I live and work. I want to be part of making sure that Milton remains a caring and kind community for all of its residents. It is our responsibility to be involved in ensuring that this is sustained for the next generation."

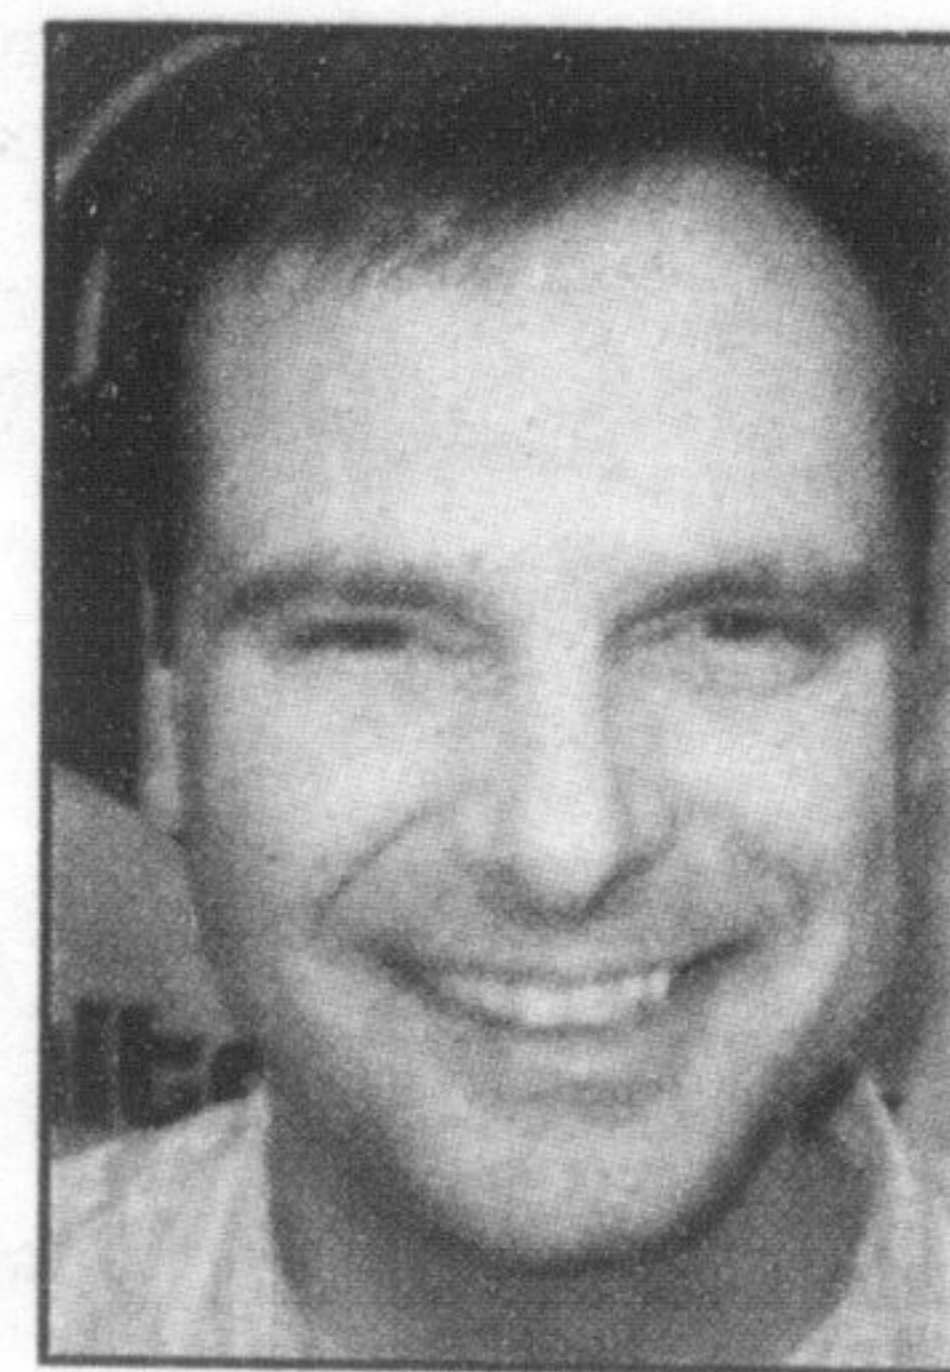

Ross Dawson
Past President

"Volunteering for the United Way is an effective and enjoyable way of assisting the Milton community in to perpetuate its many virtues. Through the United Way of Milton I have developed many acquaintances and friendships. These personal contacts have proven invaluable in my day-to-day life."

Darrell Taylor
Vice President

"It allows me to give back to the community where I have raised my family utilizing the facilities and agencies in the community."

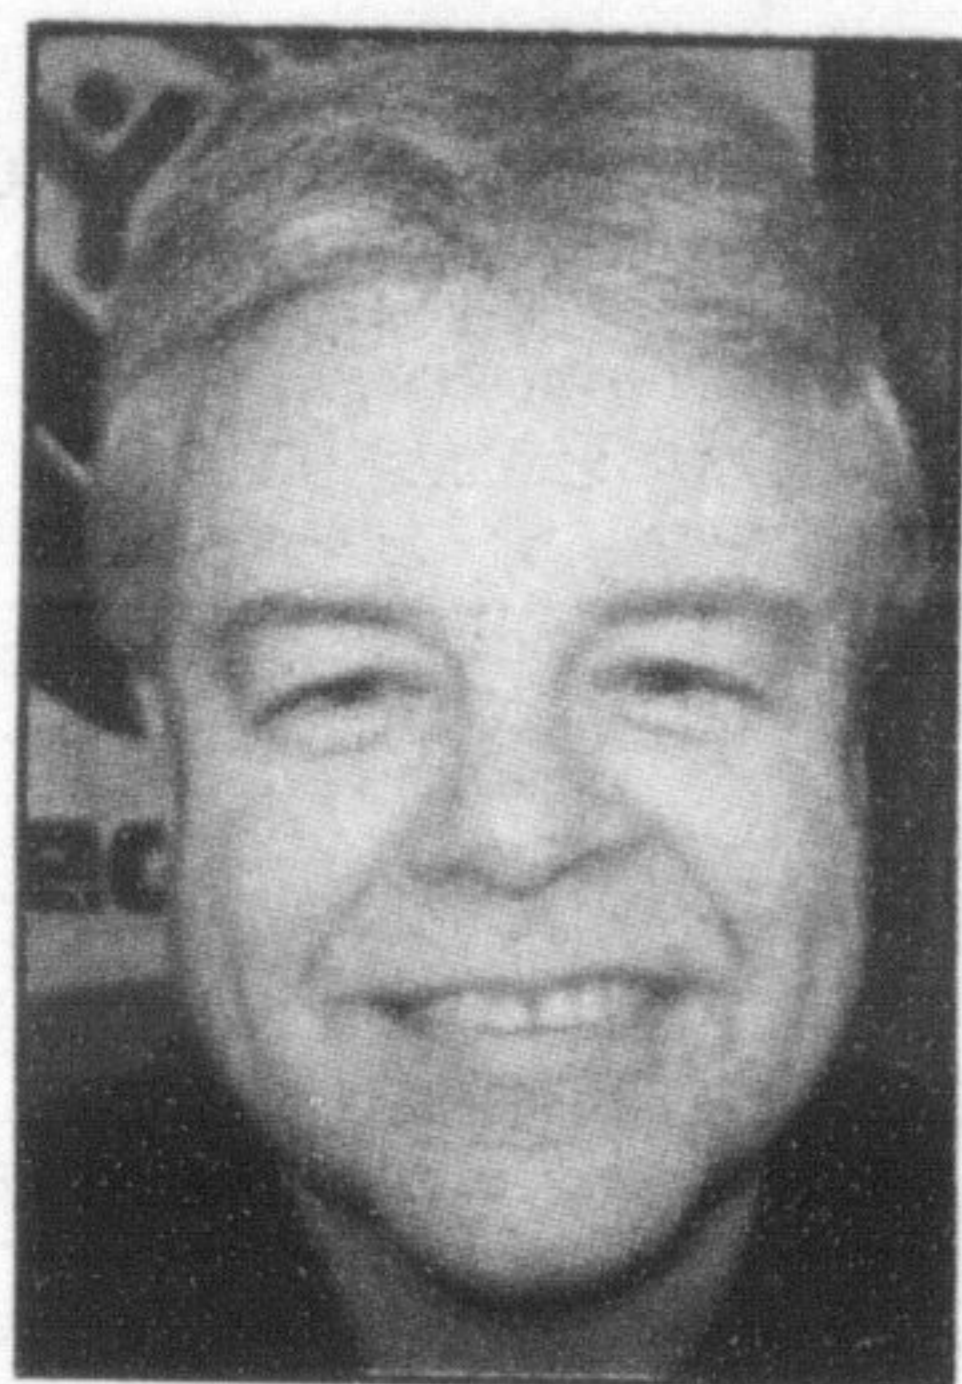

Robert Lamont
Treasurer

"When my wife and I were searching for a place to live we chose Milton because of its small town feeling of community, comfort and safety. We felt Milton would be an ideal town in which to raise a family. We currently have a 2-year-old son and by volunteering with United Way I feel I am doing something to help maintain this community's values for my child and future generations."

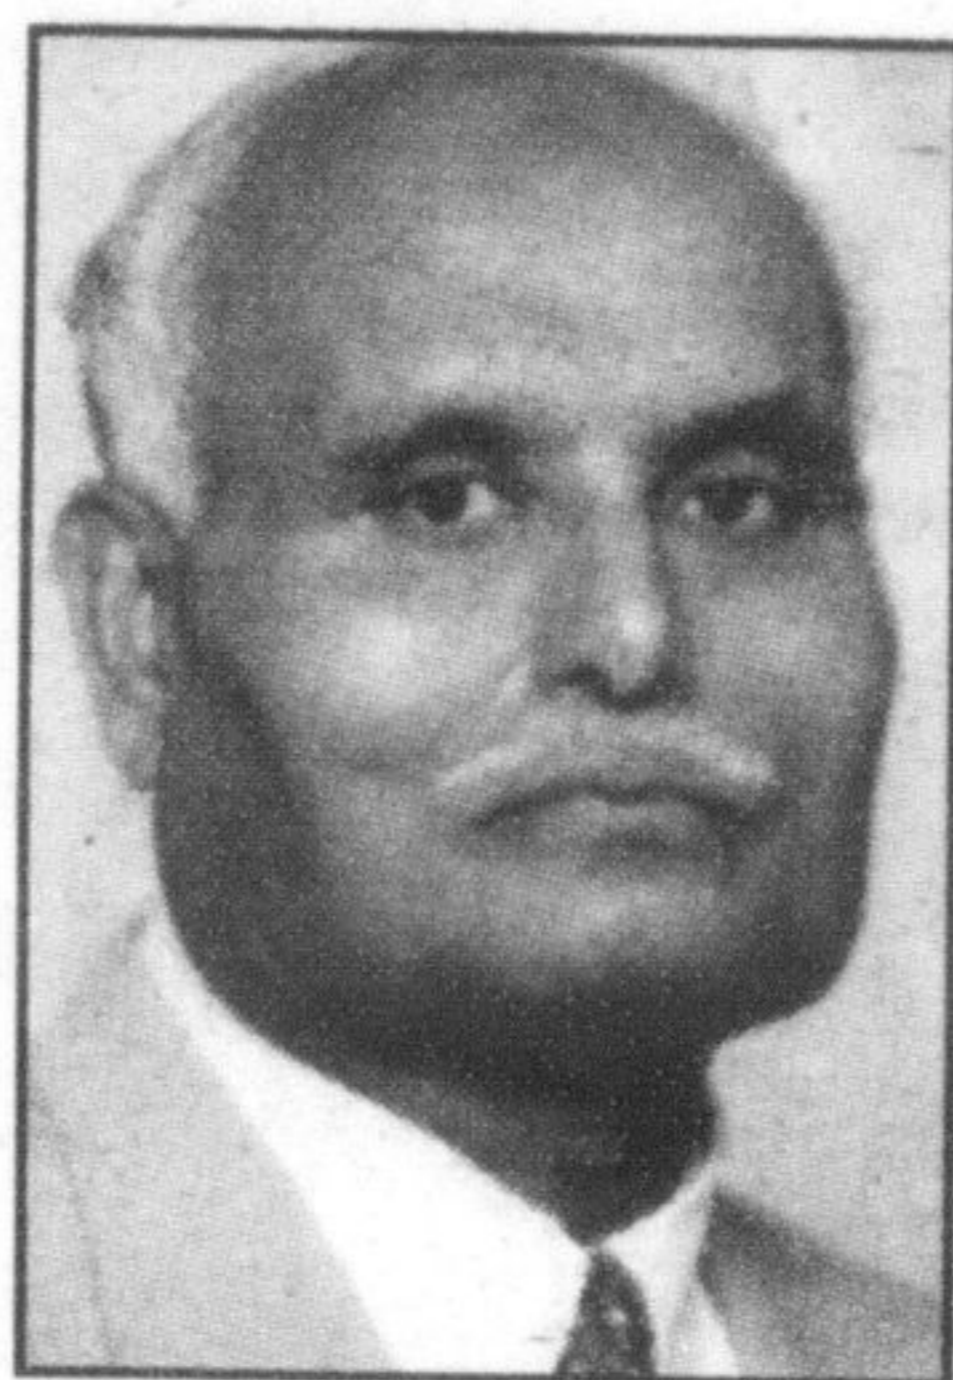

Elayne Tanner
Chair, Allocation Committee

"Volunteering is a reflexive action. I do it because I can. What began as an example for my children continues because I believe you are either a part of the problem or part of the solution. It is a wonderful opportunity to give back to the community I live in."

Hal Watson
Director

"Doing something I feel good about. Giving back to the community."

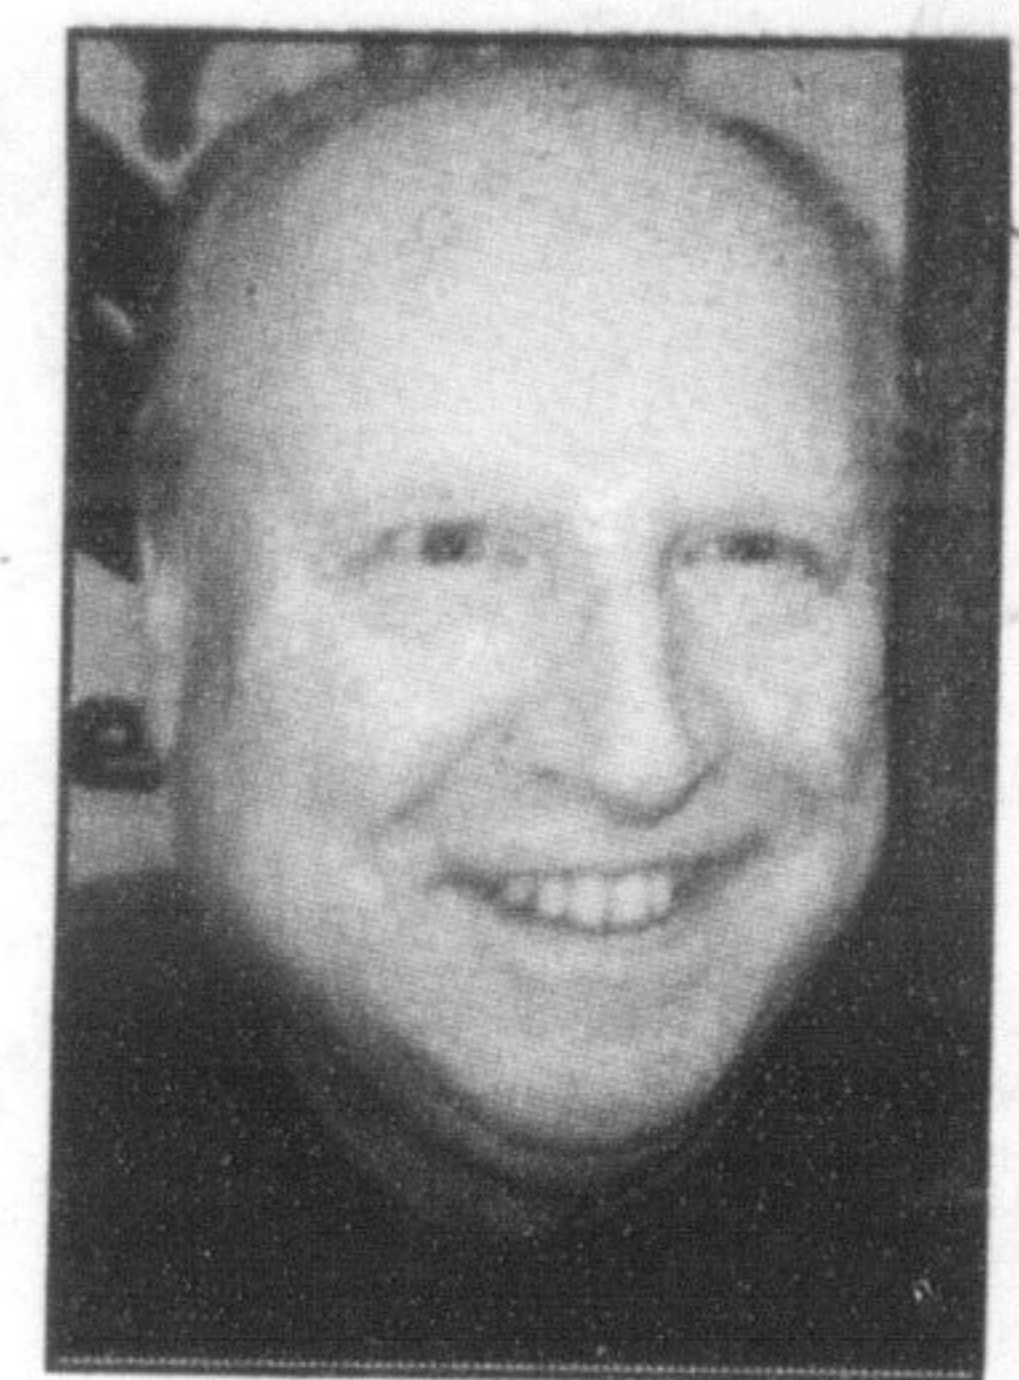

Imtiaz Khan
Director

"During the last two and a half years I had been volunteering for a welfare activity which supported an important public service. However, in the United Way of Milton we are working for an organization which, by providing sizeable financial support to about two dozen charities engaged in imparting much needed health and social services, is making a huge impact on the lives of the individuals in our community."

Astrid Lakats
Director

"As a business person in Milton I am fortunate to have met many people dedicated to making sure Milton has a vibrant economic base. Volunteering for the United Way is a very satisfying way for me to give back to this community."

Peter Charles
Director

"Over the years, my family and I have moved around eastern Canada quite a lot. We have learnt that volunteering offers us the chance not only to meet new friends but also to become part of the community in an active and very fulfilling way."
