2006 council bill nearly $300G

Almost $300,000 was spent on town council's salaries, benefits and expenses last year.

A report detailing council remuneration for 2006 went before the Town's administration and planning committee Monday night.

It showed that Mayor Gord Krantz took in $47,636 and councillors each made $20,454, with the exception of former councillors John Challinor and Ron Furik, who earned $13,846 and $18,872 respectively. Both finished their terms in office in November.

Challinor previously told the Champion it was his choice to have a lower salary and explained the money he received was adequate to cover everything he needed to do as a councillor.

Also, newly-elected councillors Colin Best and Paul Scherer each made $1,582, since they were only in office November and December last year.

Only half of the members of council claimed mileage and expenses for conferences and workshops.

The mileage claims were:

Krantz, $5,586; Wards 1 and 3 Councillor Barry Lee, $725; Ward 3 Councillor Cindy Lunau, $3,295; Ward 3 Councillor Jan Mowbray, $1,345 and Ward 1 Councillor Brian Penman, $1,427.

In the conferences and workshops department, those who had expenses were: Krantz, $2,238; Lunau, $1,992; Mowbray, $2,971; Penman, $2,169 and Ward 4 Councillor Wendy Schau, $2,045.

Also, about $29,000 was spent on benefits for council members.
