President's Message

Leslie McLaren

Congratulations to all the nominees and recipients of the 2006 Community Awards.

Over 200 family, friends and business associates were gathered at Granite Ridge Golf Club to share in the festivities. A surprise guest was John Tory, long time friend of the Honourable James and Barbara Snow, who wanted to be part of their special tribute. A standing ovation was spontaneous and heartfelt, overwhelming Barbara as she shared memories with everyone.

It was truly an evening of celebration honouring the community and business leaders nominated by you. The process begins with your nominations for Lifetime Achievement; Citizen of the Year; Business Person of the Year; Business of the Year (25 or less) and (26 or more).

Once nominations are received in January, two committees are formed by the Chamber made up of Directors, former recipients and community citizens. The first committee vets the nominations and selects the top three. It is the responsibility of the second committee to make the final decision on who will receive the awards. So you see it all begins with the people of Milton who submit nominations.

Congratulations to:

Citizens of the Year - Del & Rose Oxford

President Award Recipients - Tarah Cherwoniak, Nanci Job, Len Lee

Business of the Year (25 or less) - A Country Mile

Business of the Year (26 or more) - Chudleigh's

Businessperson of the Year - Angelo DeMedicis, Milton Home Hardware Building Centre.

A special thanks to all our sponsors, prize donors and attendees.

It was a night to remember!

Leslie McLaren
