

Scholarship deadline tomorrow

There isn't much time left for local high school graduates to apply to the Halton Region Chinese Canadian Association's (HRCCA) Scholarship Award Program.

The deadline for applications is tomorrow.

The program was launched early this year to encourage and recognize students of all ethnic backgrounds who've demonstrated outstanding leadership and involvement in the community while promoting Chinese culture.

The scholarships have been made possible through the HRCCA's partnership with the Community Foundation of Oakville.

The HRCCA is a non-profit, non-political and non-denominational organization formed by a group of community-minded volunteers from Halton dedicated to promoting cultural education, understanding and interaction between the Chinese community and society-at-large.

For more information about the HRCCA scholarship, visit www.hrcca.ca or e-mail hrcca@hrcca.ca.

YMCA kids walk to raise funds

Up to 70 kids will march along the sidewalk next week as part of the YMCA's Child Care Walk-a-thon.

The event will take place Thursday, Apr. 19, with kids from the Milton YMCA's toddler, preschool and kindergarten programs raising funds through pledges and then walking.

The kids will walk from the E.C. Drury complex, which houses the YMCA, to Milton Mall.

More than 200 YMCA Child Care Centres across the GTA will hold walk-a-thons on that day in support of the YMCA Strong Kids Campaign. Funds will go to help kids and families participate in YMCA programs they couldn't otherwise afford.
