

Your Invitation To Worship

What Price to You Put on Love?

Easter reminds us of the incredible value of God's love for humanity. While we were still sinners, Jesus died for us. Though we did nothing to deserve so great a sacrifice, He chose to give His life for us. Such love!

How easy is it for us to put a price tag on the love that we bestow upon others? Many times, I have heard it said that if you scratch my back, I will scratch yours. God's love is different - it's kind of like the mother's love in the following story.

One evening, mother was busy doing dishes alone after dinner. Her little boy came up to her and gave her a piece of paper. She dries her hands on her apron and reads:

For cutting the grass: $5.00

For cleaning up my room this week: $1.00

For going to the store for you: $1.00

Baby-sitting my kid brother while you went shopping: $2.50

Taking out the garbage: $1.00

The list went on and on.

At the bottom it said, Total owed: $14.75

Well, his mother looked at him standing there, and the boy could see the memories flashing through her mind. She picked up the pen. She turned over the paper he'd written on, and this is what she wrote:

For the nine months I carried you while you were growing inside me: No Charge

For all the nights that I've sat up with you, doctored and prayed for you: No Charge

For all the trying times and the tears I've shed for you over all the years: No Charge

For all the times that I wiped your nose and your backside: No Charge

For all the toys, food and clothes: No Charge

Son, when you add it up, the cost of my love is: No Charge.

When the boy finished reading what his mother had written, there were big tears in his eyes, and he looked straight at his mother and said, "Mom, I sure do love you."

And then he took the pen and in great big letters he wrote: "PAID IN FULL!"

Today's teens have a hard time understanding the value of parental love. They spend all their time trying to break free from parental influence. They want to take control of their destinies.

Parents, remind your children regularly of your love. And remind them that while it costs you to love them - they can have it for free.

To learn more about love, visit a local church this week. Service times and locations are published for you in the Religious Directory below.
