Our Bronze medal winners are: Jason Lyon, Chris Roger, RJ Sargento, and Aaron Boyer for Distance Challenge (Best Presentation), Pam Belair for Culinary Arts, and Rihama Jawfer for Hairstyling. Special mentions go to Amanda Morgan and Stephanie Epp who finished in 4th place out of 14 competitors, and amazing accomplishment given the level of competition in TV/Video Production. Congratulations Drury!!! This is an amazing feat and we couldn't be happier with your successes!!!

One job well done, and more to go! Our 30 Hour Famine is to be held on May 4th-5th. We have movies, bands, games, and music planned out for everyone attending. Pretty much everything but food! Sorry guys, but there will be plenty of juice! We are looking forward to seeing all of you there in your sleeping bag warrior stance. This is one sleepover we don't plan to sleep for. We hope you're ready.

However, nothing could have you on your toes more than our up and coming DRUMLINE!!! Who else is excited?! Mr. Di Giorgio is rounding up our best beat-keeping students to take two glorious wooden sticks in hand and show us that they don't really want to work, they just want to bang on a drum all day!

It might take a little more work to pull this next one together though, E.C. is presenting our musical "Come What May" on May 10, 11, and 12. We are looking forward to a spectacular performance from our best! Good luck at rehearsals!

After all of the hammering, cooking, print-making, drumming, and singing, we have a little more of a serious topic to get to (sorry). As of April 18th, midterms are out! We expect you all did well, so don't run and hide. This is huge news for our seniors as the second wave of admissions from universities and colleges are flying out. Once again GOOD LUCK! Lastly, a quick note to all graduates, the FULL DISCLOSURE date is April 26th! See guidance if you need any changes made, if you are under the age of 18, be sure to get a signed note from your parents before you do anything rash. Hang in there kids!

And this is just a last minute reminder that the annual Coffee House is coming up fast at the end of May! Be prepared!!!
