Kalapaca back with 'Hawks

Randy Novak won't be the only familiar face behind the IceHawks' bench this fall.

Sold to longtime friends and business partners Dean Piatt and Rob DeVincentis last month, Milton's Tier 2 Jr. A hockey club has brought back Mike Kalapaca to assist Novak.

The returning assistant coach has an extensive background at both the junior and triple-A minor league level.

In addition to being a now three-time assistant skipper with Milton, Kalapaca is a former head coach of the Streetsville Derbys and past assistant with the Georgetown Raiders.

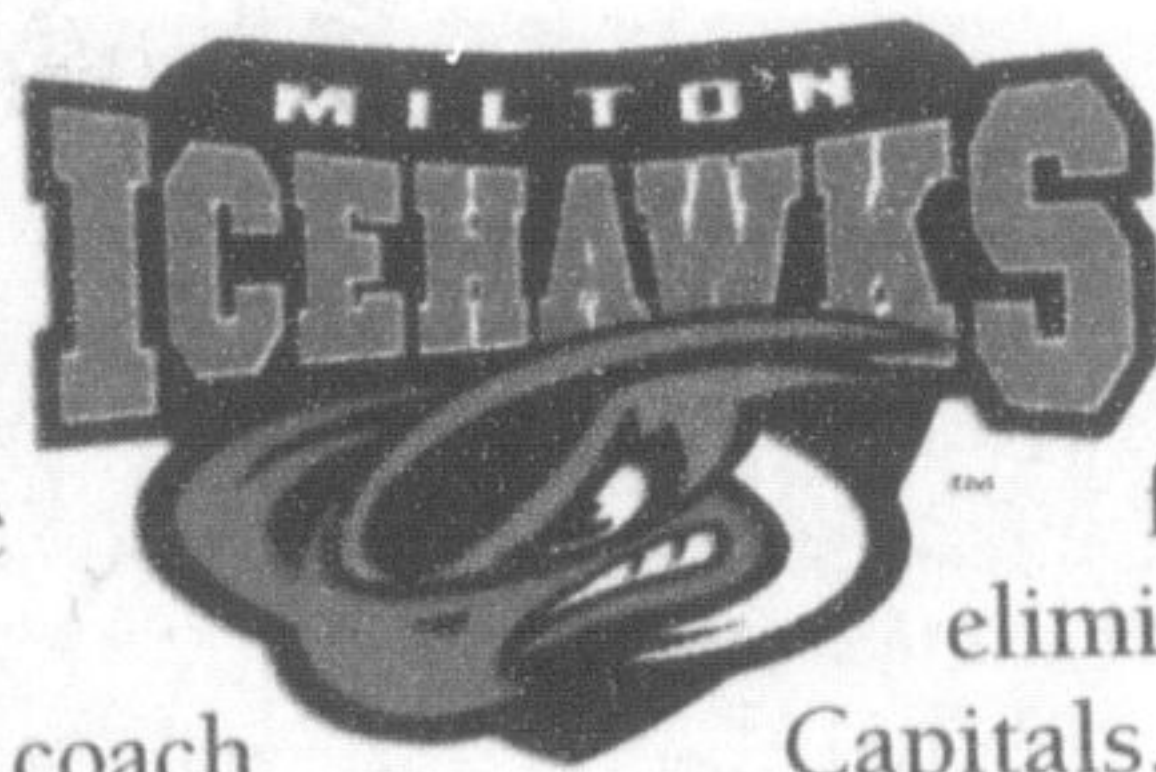

Up until this past season he spent a few years as head coach of the Halton

Hurricanes' minor midgets.

"I feel really good about Mike being back," said Novak, who worked with Kalapaca in Milton during the second half of the 2006/07 season before the two were released by then owner Rick Heinz immediately following a first-round elimination to the Brampton Capitals. "He only makes our coaching staff better with his knowledge of the game, teaching ability and experience."

Now part of a recruiting-by-committee contingent, Novak and Kalapaca will hold the IceHawks' annual rookie camp next week at Etobicoke's Westwood Arena.

There's no word yet on when a general manager will be hired.

Mustangs corral two more wins

Milton District's baseball team kept its unbeaten streak intact with two more wins against Halton's Volpe Division opposition earlier this week.

The victories both came against Halton Hills opponents, but that's where any similarities end.

In their most competitive encounter so far, the Mustangs outdistanced a formidable Christ the King squad 11-10 Monday — with Rashad Nazeer driving in Ryan Bauer for the winning run in the sixth.

Bauer had two hits, including a two-run homer that highlighted a seven-run first inning. The Georgetown hosts wiped out this sizable lead and pushed MD to the limit before suffering their first loss of the season.

There was no such suspense factor in a return to Georgetown Wednesday, when the Mustangs ran roughshod over lowly Acton 11-2.

MD surrendered just one hit in the lopsided affair and enjoyed particularly effective pitching from Mike Robertson, who amassed seven strikeouts in three innings.

Just about everyone contributed to the hit parade.

The Mustangs took their 4-0 record into yesterday afternoon's make-up game with the Bishop Reding Royals, who improved to 3-1 with Wednesday's 10-7 decision over the E.C. Drury Spartans, who made the final score rather respectable with three runs in their last at-bat.

Standing out for the winners was Will Hunter, who had three hits, including a two-run inside-the-park homer.

MD and BR will be part of next week's GHAC qualifying tournament. The playdowns begin Monday.
