Milton District High School once looked like this.

MDHS hosting big reunion

Calling all former students of Milton District High School (MDHS) and what was Milton High School.

Are you looking to re-connect with old friends and reminisce about days gone by? September 7 to 9, an all-years high school reunion will take place at MDHS, 396 Williams Ave., and you're invited.

This is the first reunion for the schools in more than 20 years and organizers are expecting a great turnout. The theme of the event is 'Come on Home'.

The reunion will kick off Friday, Sept. 7 at MDHS, with tours of the school and a view into the past decades.

Guests will then head downtown where some of the local bars are hosting the different decades — the perfect place to find that old friend.

Bryden's is hosting the 2000s, The Olde Dickens the 1990s, the Ivy Arms is taking the '80s and The Post Office is taking on the '70s. The '60s and earlier will meet at the legion on Charles Street.

Saturday, Sept. 8, reunion-goers will head back to MDHS for an afternoon of fun and sports. Basketball, soccer, volleyball and a barbecue are just some of the scheduled events.

For the non-sports-minded graduates, Martin Street School (the former Milton High School) will be open for touring. That night will feature a barbecue dinner followed by a dance on the football field hosted by the Kinsmen and the Kinettes.

Sunday, Sept. 9 the reunion will end with a brunch at MDHS.

Alumni can register on-line now at www.geocities.com/mdhs_reunion/index.html or during the Milton Farmer's Market at the Ivy Arms. Registration costs $10 before July 1 or $15 from July 2 to September 1.

For students coming from out of town, the local hotels are offering rooms at a discounted rate — just mention the MDHS reunion. These rooms must be booked before August 7 for the discount.

The reunion committee is seeking donations to help defray costs. To make a donation, contact Chris and Shirley Heath at (905) 878-3545 or visit the aforementioned website.
