

Your Invitation To Worship

BE ALL THAT YOU CAN BE

Jeremiah 29:11 states: "I know that plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

God has a wonderful plan for each of our lives. Often, we forget that when God looks at our lives, He sees not only our past, but our potential for the future as well. He knows what He could accomplish through our gifts and talents if we were completely surrendered to His plan.

God watches the people who are surrounding our lives, judging the merits of Christianity by the consistency of our lifestyle. He sees the individuals we will encounter and have an opportunity to share our faith with -- if we are spirituality on track at the time. He knows which persons could be the great doctors, lawyers, legislators, preachers or teachers. He is aware of what could happen through us if we were available for His purpose.

As parents, I encourage you to be all that you can be! Your children possess incredible potential. Your love holds the liberating key of releasing them to achieve great things. How you raise them matters. More often than not, the acorn often does not travel far from the oak. Determine today to make a difference in your children's lives.

Consider the nostalgic reflections of Diane Loomans:

If I had my child to raise all over again,
 I'd build self-esteem first and the house later.
 I'd finger-paint more and finger-point less.
 I would do less correcting and more connecting.
 I'd eye my watch less and watch more with my eyes.

I would care to know less and know to care more.

I'd take more hikes and fly more kites.
 I'd stop playing serious and seriously play.
 I would run through more fields and gaze at more stars.
 I'd model less about the love of power.
 And more about the power of love.
 The only person who can stop you from becoming what God intends you to become is you! Do not neglect God's principles for highly effective living as laid out in the Bible. Let me encourage you to benefit from the challenge, inspiration and practical assistance that church has to offer you in your quest of becoming all that you can be!

Make plans to visit a local church this week. Service times and locations are published in the directory below.
