Street festival packs 'em in

Clockwise from top left: Five-year-old Jessica Kursim bites into an icy snow cone while taking in Milton's 150th Downtown Street Party Saturday. Melissa Knapman, seven-and-a-half-years-old, digs into a freshly-steamed cob of corn. Anthony Aversa holds two-and-a-half-year-old daughter Olivia and her ice cream cone as she licks some of the melting treat off her fingers. Taylor Howson, 6, has fun pretending to drive this restored 1922 fire truck alongside her grandfather Bob Robinson of the Kilbride Fire Department. A sea of party goers packs its way onto Main Street. Lisa McMillan holds 10-and-a-half-month-old daughter Sarah as she moves to the sound of the music on the main stage. Jeff and Deanne Willis don turn of the century clothing as they greet guests at their Main Street financial office. The couple sponsored horse and buggy rides for the event.
