MILTON DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL

The days are winding down here at MD, as one of the most incredible, eventful, and fun-filled school years at Milton District comes to a close. The halls of MD are overflowing with excitement and anticipation for the summer to come. It is amazing to see that the fact that exams start next Thursday has hardly dampened school spirit, with there surprisingly being plenty to still look forward to in the days to come.

Last week MD held its annual Sports and Spirit week, and once again it was a huge success. Students from all grades came out to the many intramural games held during the week and had a blast participating. Thursday was especially jam packed with it being Fun Day complete with a BBQ, cotton candy, bungee boxing, bungee rope and a dunk tank! In the evening the Sports Banquet was held and various awards were handed out to deserving athletes. The ceremony was then followed by the last official dance of the year. The day went off without a hitch, and Mustangs enjoyed themselves to the max!

Now although it seems farfetched to suggest that there is still more fun to come in these last weeks of school, it can't be denied that the Senior Auction this Wednesday, June 13th promises to be one of the most entertaining school events yet! The Prom Committee has been working hard to put together this event in order to raise money for this year's senior prom. Students from all grades will have the opportunity to buy any senior that is up for auction periods 3 and 4 on Wednesday, and then make them their "slave" on Friday June 15th. Let it be noted that buying a senior could be lots of fun...you can dress them up however you wish, make them drive you out lunch, bring them to all your classes, and make them carry around your books! So be ready to spend some big bucks on Wednesday because this senior auction guarantees to be full of surprises!

This Friday has even more in store for MD grads, as the Grad Breakfast will be held, with students having the opportunity to hear sample speeches from the three nominees for valedictorian. Every senior gets to vote on the person they wish to be their valedictorian, and the other two nominees will be given the role of introducing and thanking the valedictorian at Commencement in October.

Well Mustangs, although the pressure of exams looms in the distance, enjoy the present, and make sure you make the most out of your last few days at Milton District before the summer!

E.C. DRURY HIGH SCHOOL

Heyyyy everybody! Heyyyy Dr. Nick! Needless to say, we are way too busy to be writing about this right now. The Simpsons is our only stress reliever. We have a few final bangs to go out on though, we have the athletic magic banquet coming up, not to mention prom, or you know...prom. It is being held at Liuna Gardens and yes we are excited. It is ridiculous, ridiculously awesome. There will even be...a mermaid fountain, and lions...spitting water. Gardens, flowers, water, bushes, dirt, roots, stone, oh my god! Lions, tigers, mermaids oh my! So anyways, we will have a good time on the evening of June 28th. Back down at earth anyways, not up in Italian wedding heaven.

Our soccer boys just got back from Timmins (polar bear heaven?), and though they didn't win a medal they won the first ever OFFSA game for the E.C. Drury soccer team! Congratulations boys on a great season.

The Coffee House was a huge hit, with everyone turning out fantastic performances. The dances particularly stood out in everyone's mind, and all of our writers truly proved that in our words, we are immortal. Congrats to all for another legendary Coffee House!

Exams are looming, like mountains, or something else large and ominous. Much less ominous, and definitely smaller (in size, not capacity!), congratulations Kelly Walter on being our Valedictorian!! We know you'll be amazing, the proof was in your improv. at the graduation meeting. We expect great things if you have until October to figure it out, with the help of our very own editor and commander in chief Mr. Keane.

Grad polls have also come out at that very same graduation meeting. Some of our best were, best butt went out to Michelle Parcels and Nick Ronan, most likely to take over the world, our very own Ashley Carlisle, and James Bell, cutie petutie award went to our darling Michelle Staples, and Justin Webber, most talkative went out to Steve Jackson (obviously), and Mel Kay. However our favourites were the world record breakers, Ryan Tsuruda for biggest pipes (you know where the vet is? Cause I've got two sick pythons), and Alex Godfrey for the most accumulated driving tickets (um, she also won worst driver, sorry Alex.)

Before this article truly crumbles into mumbling nonsense full of half equations and scrambled theories, we're just going to end it here. Hope that the Wizard still loves us. Goodbye!

BISHOP REDING HIGH SCHOOL

The end of school is near, Bishop Reding! With less than a week left to go everyone is getting anxious, stressed, excited, nervous and scared. Graduates are busy preparing for college and university and other students are busy with those tough culminating and studying for the exams ahead. However, to break the stress Bishop Reding does still have a few tricks left up its sleeve. Last Friday was the annual athletic banquet, and yesterday was Ms. Marsalek's dance team and dance class recital.

Last Friday our athletes were honoured at the annual athletic banquet. All students who played on a sports team, no matter how small or large their part was, were invited to this great night. Student athletes were rewarded with a delicious dinner followed by an award ceremony where the most prestigious awards in student athletics were given out. Some of these awards included junior and senior athlete of the year, team of the year and many other sportsmanship awards. Bishop Reding Athletics has had a great year this year, sending three teams to OFSAA. Congratulations royals on many fantastic seasons, and to those athletes graduating this year good luck in your future sports endeavors and we will be looking for you in the future.

Last evening, Bishop Reding had the pleasure of presenting one of our athletic teams that is not mentioned enough. The dance team, led by Ms. Marsalek presented the routines they have been practicing all year. Ms. Marsalek is also the teacher of BR's first ever dance class, who also performed. The hard work of all the students was evident in their great recitals, which were a tribute to the girls' talent and dedication to the art of dance. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended, and we look forward to seeing great things in the future from the newly added class to BR's roster.

On a final note to remind students of the ever-approaching end of the year, BR will be collecting clothes for the annual Used Uniform Sale starting the week of June 18th. Anyone wishing to drop off clean items for sale can do so, and any graduating students who donate two items for sale are welcome to wear civvies for the remainder of the semester. Donations are greatly appreciated, though the school requests that no kilts be donated.

We're almost at the finish line, Bishop Reding! Exams are almost here, so your Inside Sources wish you the best of luck and enjoyment of all the great things to come!
