

FACES of Milton

GETTING IN THE SWING OF THINGS:

Roger Mason of The Olde Dickens pub has a little fun as he stretches prior to teeing off at Hornby Glen Golf Course last week. He was taking part in the Milton District Hospital Foundation's golf tournament in support of the CT scanner fund. Also at the tournament were various local business owners and Halton MPP Ted Chudleigh.
