

Hey kids, there's worlds to explore at the library this summer

Kids interested in ancient worlds, dinosaurs and archeology will love discovering Lost Worlds as part of the Milton Public Library's Summer Reading Club program.

You can register at the library or from home, by logging onto the library's website (www.mpl.on.ca), selecting 'especially for kids' and following the links. We're thrilled to announce 'The Funky Mamas' will help launch our club on Monday, July 9 from 2 to 3 p.m. at the library. Pick up your free ticket at the Children's Information Desk.

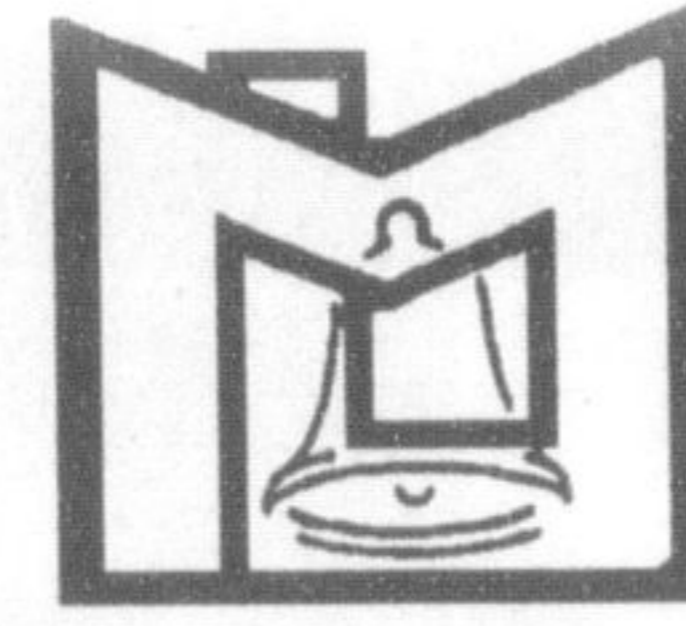

Junior Archeologists club members — for three to five-year-olds — will share read-aloud books with their caregivers. Participants will receive a poster and log book to keep track of the library books they read this summer. Once the log book is full, it can be traded in for a prize. We will have our final 'dig' on August 20 at 10:30 a.m. Come and meet all the other Junior Archeologists at this wrap-up party.

Children who can read on their own and are six to 10 years old are invited to join our Lost Worlds club. Readers will receive a Lost Worlds poster and an activity log book to record their reading. Participants are welcome to drop by the library during weekly book club hours to present book reports and participate in various theme-based activities. Book reports and activities are worth points, which can be redeemed for prizes. Our final adventure for readers who earn eight points will run from 2 to 2:30 p.m. on August 20.

Explorers of Ancient Worlds is for young adults aged 11 and up. Each book report submitted earns a ballot to be entered in a weekly draw. On August 20 at noon, participants are invited to a pizza party. At the party, there will be a final draw for a chance to win a digital camera, computer store gift certificate or movie passes.

Every Wednesday afternoon from July 4 to August 15, there will be a special program for six to 11-year-olds. In July, we will be 'Digging for Dinosaurs', 'Surviving in Rome' and having fun with 'Charlotte's Web'. In August, we are going to decipher the ancient writings of 'Ancient Egypt', learn how to 'Eat Fried Worms' and venture into 'Ancient Greece'. Each program is $3. To secure your spot, register early with payment.

Our youngest readers can choose from five weekly drop-in story times. 'Rise 'n' Shine' for babies and toddlers and their caregivers will be held on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 10 a.m., followed both days at 11 a.m. by our 'Family Story Time' for three to six-year-olds. Thursday evening is our 'Teddy Bear Time' at 6:45 p.m. for children three and up.

The library looks forward to seeing you this summer as we search for Lost Worlds.
