

TOWN HALL

1. The County Court building, completed in 1855, is now the site of Town Hall and the offices of the Corporation of the Town of Milton.

2. Milton's first Town Hall was constructed in 1865 at a cost of $5,000. Located in downtown Milton, the now privately-owned building currently houses a number of businesses and organizations, including Milton Chamber of Commerce.

3. Milton's first Town Hall officially opened in 1867.

4. The jail and exercise yard were added to the County Building in 1877. The exercise yard is now the site of the beautiful walled gardens at Town Hall, which are maintained by Milton Horticultural Society.

5. A new brick addition to Milton's first Town Hall opened in 1894, expanding the stage area.

Congratulations to the Town of Milton on your 150th Anniversary

Mount Dairy's horse-drawn milk wagon was a familiar sight delivering milk to Milton households about 1919.
