We are an innovative leader in the newspaper industry and are currently seeking the ideal candidate to join our team in the role of:

Building Operator

Continuity of our office and manufacturing facility is critical to our success as a leading edge provider of print and on-line media. The successful candidate will play a key role in operating and maintaining our facility in a safe, reliable and cost-effective manner. A key focus of this position will include responsibility for conducting regular predictive and preventative maintenance activities throughout the facility in order to reduce the frequency and severity of emergency and corrective maintenance. The ideal candidate will be a skilled craftsperson who is action oriented with well developed analytical and technical skills. He/she will be capable of performing a wide variety of maintenance, repair, minor alterations and service functions. Sound judgment in diagnosing, responding and/or escalating problems is critical. Through acquired knowledge of the building operations, the candidate will effect process improvements to reduce energy and maintenance costs and improve reliability. Strong interpersonal and negotiation skills will be essential in managing relationships with colleagues, internal customers and external service providers.

This position requires:
Knowledge of, or accreditation in, general building systems such as HVAC, process equipment, instrumentation and fire protection. A minimum of three years experience in a building operator role and a minimum of one certified trade and/or power engineering. Knowledge of relevant legislation, including the OHSA. Demonstrated ability to procure and manage a wide variety of maintenance and support services from outside vendors. Excellent written and verbal communication skills.

The successful applicant will be an energetic self-starter who demonstrates attention to detail and the ability to learn on the fly. Hours of work will be variable and the incumbent will be required to respond outside of normal working hours in order to ensure business continuity. The Hamilton Spectator offers a comprehensive compensation plan including access to pension and benefits.

If interested apply IN WRITING to the Human Resources Department by July 24, 2007 and quote file number 5086.
