And the winners are...

Kids' story-telling flair shines through

Milton students recently put on their thinking caps and came up with some pretty creative ideas in response to the Town of Milton's Milly the Millstone Story Writing Contest.

And now, the results are in and the winners have been announced.

Taking the prize for the Grades 2 to 4 category is Megan Devoe, a Grade 3 student from St. Peter's School.

In Megan's story, Milly the Millstone is from a long line of millstones and comes from the Rocky Mountains in British Columbia to Milton with her group is Althea Ibay, a Grade 7 student from Guardian Angels School.

Althea's story, entitled 'Life and Times of Milly the Millstone', describes how Milly comes to live in Milton and how she's employed by original settler Jasper Martin.

Many of the stories submitted described Milly traveling through time to learn about her own history and that of Milton. Students described such events as the opening of town hall, the first post office and the growth of

The winning stories were chosen by 150th Anniversary Master Committee, Literacy North Halton, Milton Public Library and the Champion.

The judges awarded points based on specific criteria including imagination, storyline, creativity, language and reader interest.

The two winners received a pizza party for their class courtesy of the Champion, as well as 150th anniversary merchandise from the Town of Milton.

To view the winning stories, visit

GET DEFENSIVE

Protect yourself when biking this season: wear a helmet every time you ride, don't weave in and out of traffic, and follow local laws and guidelines for riding. If you're driving, watch for bicyclists riding in the road.

We can all share the road this summer.

Autoconnect Kia

1195 Steeles Avenue, Milton, ON (905) 876-2358

full lineup of Kia vehicles.

KIA MOTORS

The Power to Surprise"

