April Business After Hours

More than 75 Chamber members and guests enjoyed the Business After Hours at Ned Devine's Irish Pub and Ale House. All who attended the event had an excellent time and enjoyed the opportunity to network with others in the community while enjoying delicious food and beverages.

An exciting addition to July's Business After Hours was the presentation of the Chamber Scholarships which are supported by different events that the Chamber runs throughout the year. The deserving recipients of the scholarships were Vanessa Nickel from E.C. Drury High School, Michael Dorgo from Bishop Reding Secondary School, Megan Cheema from Milton District High School, Kevin Ziegert from E.C. Drury School for the Deaf and Ryan Bauer recipient of the Apprenticeship Scholarship from Milton District High School. Congratulations to all the worthy recipients and good luck with your post secondary education in the fall.
