Theatre students donating to CT scanner campaign

Members of a local theatre school have been raising money for the local CT scanner campaign and are now celebrating the fruits of their labour.

Students from Milton Youth Theatre

Productions will be donating $800 toward Milton District Hospital's scanner campaign, which they raised this past year.

"The students have taken an active role in this campaign," said director Kim Belvedere, adding, "It's important to be involved and aware of community issues. The CT scanner has the potential to affect a lot of people in Milton and the surrounding area."

Students raised the money from their March Break, summer camp and Christmas concerts.

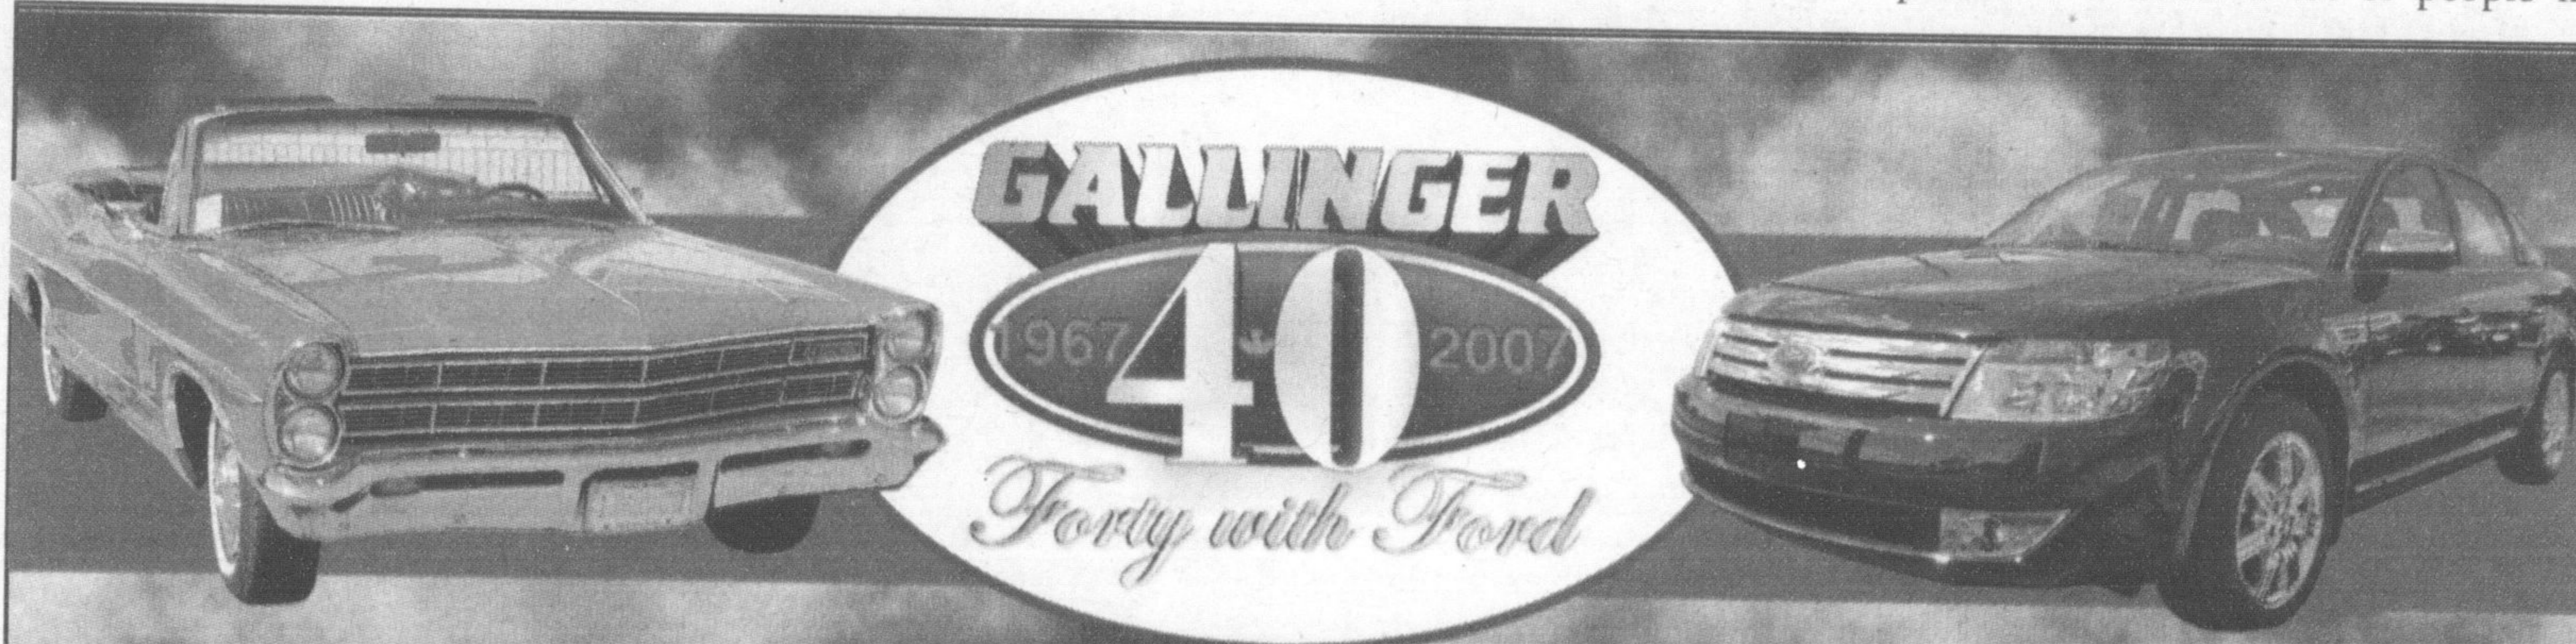

Michael Beaver of the Milton District Hospital Foundation said the group's donation actually works out to $1,600 since the Orlando Corporation is matching every dollar raised.

"This is just great. It means a lot to the foundation to have a community group raise money for our community hospital," he said.

The students will present the cheque to Beaver at their summer camp show this coming Thursday at the Milton Fair Grounds.

The public is invited to enjoy a barbecue at 5 p.m. and watch the show at 6 p.m.
