War re-enactment this weekend

A historic battle will take place at Country Heritage Park — well, sort of.

This Saturday and Sunday, the park will present its American Civil War Re-enactment, which will depict the Battle of Wilson's Creek.

Visitors will have a chance to travel back in time to 1861 — when the battle originally took place — to experience military and civilian life of the American Civil War era. The re-enactment will demonstrate the battle between the Union and the Confederates at Wilson's Creek.

In addition to the smoking guns of battle, there will be activities for the entire family to enjoy including authentic artillery and cavalry demonstrations. There will also be medical and ladies' etiquette talks, a fashion show and refreshments at the ladies' afternoon tea. Kids of all ages are invited to participate in the civil war spy mission (scavenger hunt).

The Battle of Wilson's Creek was the most important battle west of the Missouri River in 1861 because through it the Confederates gained control of southwestern Missouri. It was where Nathaniel Lyon — the first Union general killed in combat — died.

An expert commentator will explain the re-enactment as it takes place.

The event, which will run from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days, costs $7 for adults, $6 for seniors, $4 for kids aged six to 12 and free for kids younger than six. A family pass is available for $20.

Country Heritage Park is located at 8560 Tremaine Rd.

For more information, call (905) 878-8151 or visit www.countryheritagepark.com.
