Search on for new fire chief

The Town has begun the recruitment process to find someone to fill former Fire Chief Larry Brassard's shoes.

Milton council approved a posting for the position recently vacated by Brassard at its meeting Monday night. Council also appointed Deputy Fire Chief David Krantz as the interim chief until the seat is filled.

A selection committee has been given the authority to choose and ultimately offer the job to someone. The committee will consist of the Town's administration and planning committee, CAO Mario Belvedere and Corporate Services Director Linda Leeds.

The job will be posted until September 14, followed by a series of interviews and reference checks for the selected candidate.

The posting can be viewed at www.milton.ca.

The Town anticipates having a new fire chief by the beginning of November.

Brassard resigned earlier this month after being at the helm of the Milton Fire Department for two-and-a-half years.

He has now accepted a position as the deputy fire chief of operations with Waterloo Fire Rescue.
