

FULL STEAM AHEAD:

Clockwise from right: two-year-old Jackson Farrow eagerly awaits the start of the annual Steam Era Parade along Main Street Saturday afternoon. This was the youngster's first time at the Labour Day weekend event. A vintage London and Brandon steam engine blows off a little steam as it leads a group of tractors and another steam engine west along Main Street. A participant on a motor-assisted bicycle passes a line of John Deere tractors in the parade.
