didn't deviate from our game plan — which is a strong defence and counter-attack — and that was the key to our success," said head coach Louie DiPalma, who took the Under-17 girls to back-to-back League Cup championship appearances in the late '90s. "It was a great team effort."

Zavvy Brown cemented the win with roughly five minutes to go, burying a 20-foot blast into the bottom left corner to complete a huge passing play with Heeva Sarkarrah and Sanjay Moodie.

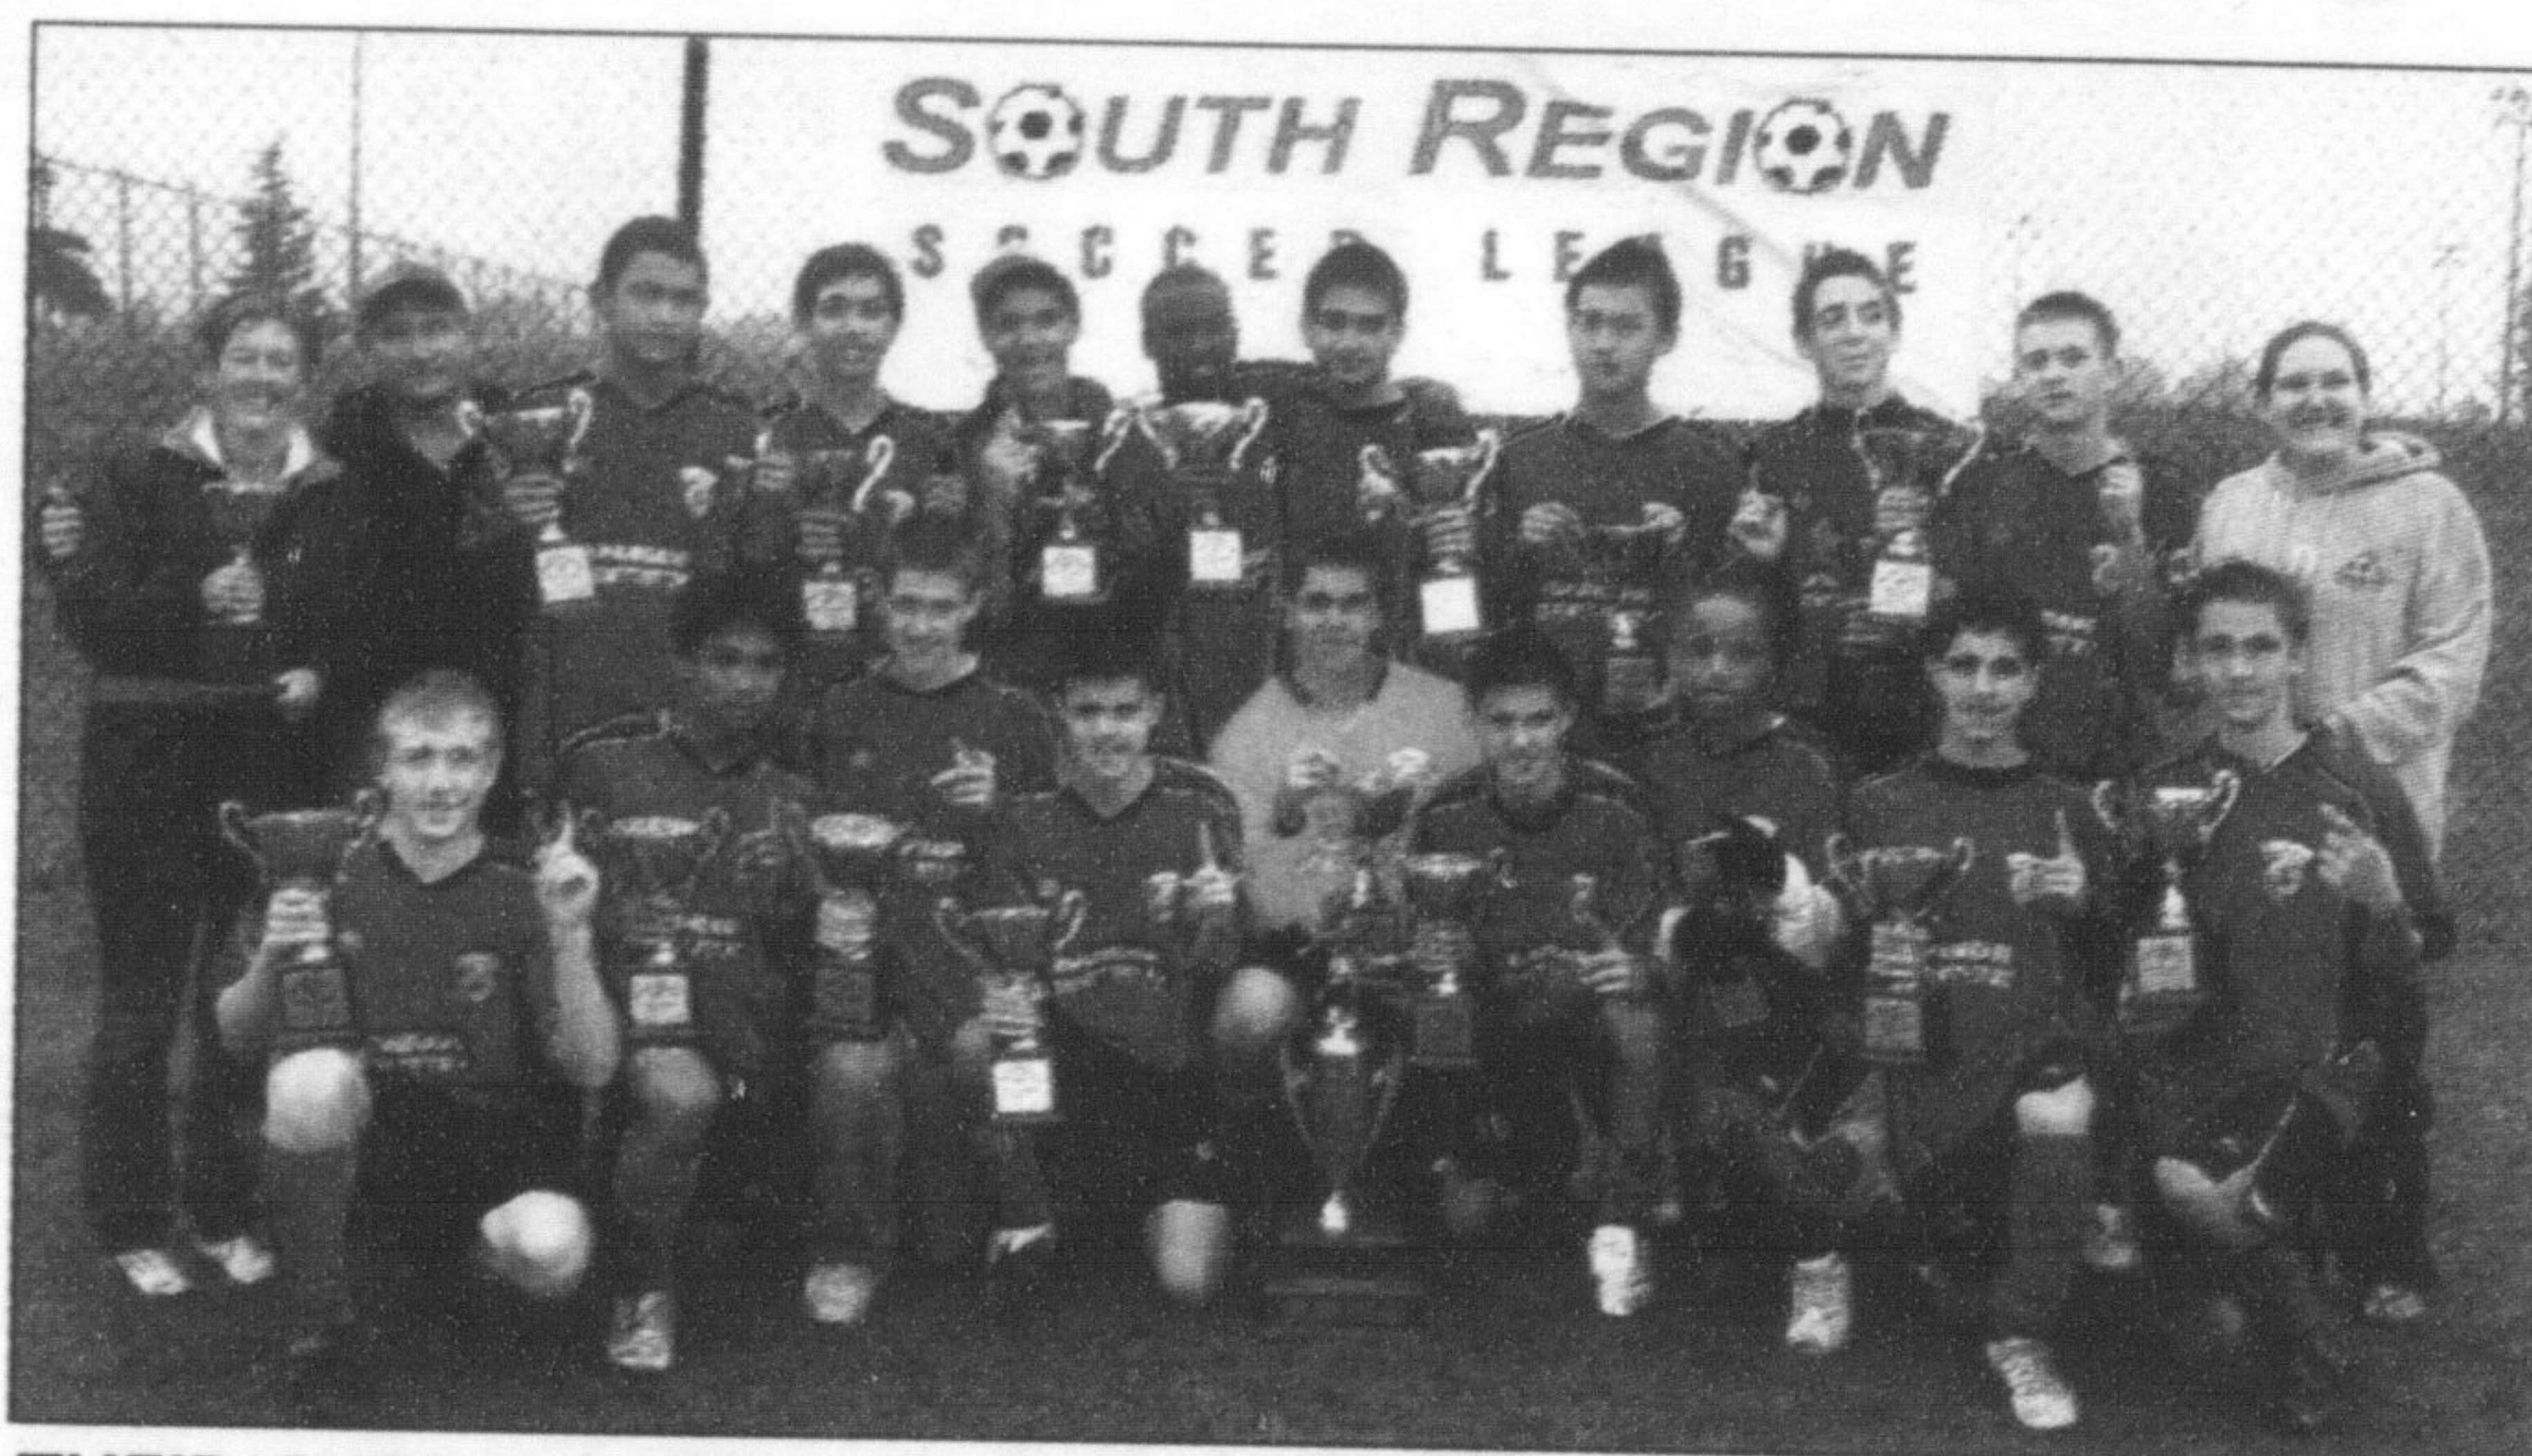

This came just a few minutes after Richard Monk — returning from an ankle injury sustained three games earlier — came off the bench to deliver the game winner. He did so with a nifty off-the-

The championship drought is over. Refusing to come unraveled after falling behind twice in the first half at Hamilton's Mohawk Park Sunday afternoon, the Under-15 Magic boys eventually grounded the Mississauga Falcons 4-2 — giving Milton its first League Cup title in over a decade, perhaps longer.

The Bhandari Dentistry-sponsored Magic gave up a goal in the first five minutes of play, and found themselves trailing again at intermission — but maintained their composure each time.

"The guys didn't push the panic button. They
