Police urge area residents to be wary of 'deals' requesting cash advances

Halton Regional Police remind local residents to ignore mailings, faxes or e-mail messages that ask for cash advances with the promise of larger financial gains for their co-operation.

Numerous complaints have been received by police from citizens in Milton and Halton Hills recently about the "confidence tricks" such as the 419 Nigerian Fraud or employment opportunities that request cash up front but turn out to be scams.

An Acton family was victimized for $60,000 while another man from Milton lost $46,000 when he sent funds to a money transfer institution and didn't receive the $26 million promised in the letter sent to his home.

"It's the typical scam that's been around for a long time but unfortunately people are still falling for it and for whatever reason this seems to be the most popular time of year for it," said Det. Const. Ken Best of the fraud unit.

"At first it looks as though it is simple to contact the person who is requesting the money but they use centralized deposits and are usually five steps away from ever being connected to the letters. It's virtually impossible to track them down."

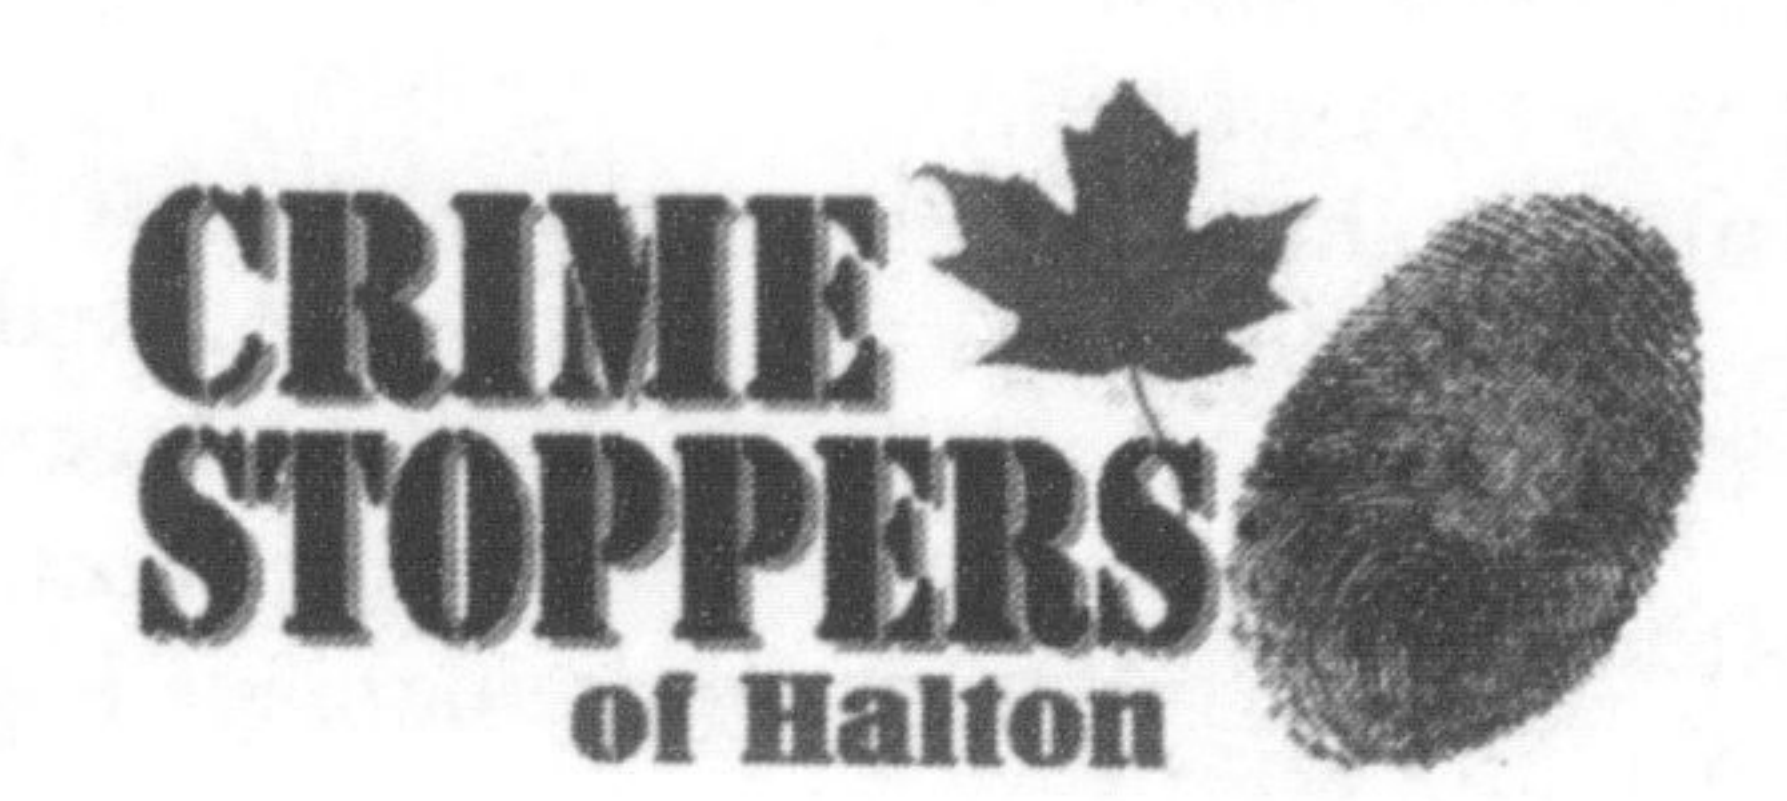

Best suggests checking the phone-busters.com website or contacting the Canadian Anti-Fraud call centre at 1-888-495-8501 to check against these scams.

Cash stolen from food court vendor in mall

Sometime overnight August 18, suspects forced open the security screen to Yamato Japan Teriyaki located in the food court of the mall at 55 Ontario St. An undisclosed amount of cash was stolen from the till.

An attempted break-in happened at the mall on August 20 at 8 a.m. when a man tried to force his way into Gamedom. The suspect was interrupted by the store owner and fled the area empty handed.

The suspect is white, six-foot-three with a skinny build, in his early twenties. He had a short buzz haircut and was wearing a black t-shirt and jeans.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward. You will never have to give your name or testify in court. Crime Stoppers of Halton does not subscribe to call display. Call 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or visit www.haltoncrimestoppers.com.
