Milton's Only Used Bookstore!

Located at 150 Mill Street, Downtown Milton is Recycled Reading, Milton's gently used bookstore. Recycled Reading is family owned and operated and is proud to have served Milton's bookworms for over 15 years.

Currently, Recycled Reading has over 50,000 previously enjoyed books in stock, both fiction and non-fiction covering a vast variety of subjects. They also know what Milton likes to read! Miltonians enjoy a lot of Murder Mysteries, Romance, True Crime, Fantasy and true to our rural heritage, Westerns.

Recycled Reading also carries a large selection of books in the subject of Arts, History, Theology, Decorating, Outdoors and much, much more including thousands of kid's books for toddlers and teens. They also have specials once in awhile so it's always worthwhile to stop by. If you can't find what you are looking for, Recycled Reading offers a free book search and will automatically reserve the book for you when it comes in.

Sarah Moore, the owner and manager of Recycled Reading, offers her clientele a large variety of books and friendly service. She believes everyone in Milton should be able to have access to a great selection of books that are economical on your wallets and purses. She invites people to come down and bring in your gently used previously enjoyed books for an in-bookstore credit (20% of the cover value).

Recycled Reading also has scrapbooking supplies for Milton's scrapbook enthusiasts. They have an excellent selection to get you started and can also get you information on how to start your own scrapbooks for past memories involving family, friends and loved ones.

Are you an avid reader looking for great book selection, good prices and friendly service? If you are, Recycled Reading should be a definite stop for your book shopping in the future!
