Offensive well turns up dry in loss to Oakville

• from 'HAWKS on page A19
one of Milton's best efforts to date in terms of working the point and clogging up the passing lanes.
Unable to build on their late production at home, the IceHawks were silenced 4-1 by the Oakville Blades Saturday evening at Dominion Twin Rinks, being held under the four-goal mark for just the second time this year.

Milton actually out-shot its hosts 35-32, but enjoyed no fortune or finish against netminder Scott Greenham.
Justin Basso was the lone marksman, recording his team-leading eighth goal in the second period. Vallorani assisted on the play to lift his point total to 22 — keeping him among the Western Conference's top producers.

Continuing to sit in the middle of the division pack, Milton returns to Memorial Friday to take on the Brampton Capitals. Game time, as always, is 7:30 p.m.

New martial arts program starting up

There's a new kid on the Milton martial arts block.
Starting tomorrow night, Instinctive Development and Training Inc. will run blended kickboxing classes at St. Paul's United Church on Main Street Wednesday evenings from 6 to 7:30 p.m.
Combining elements of Muay Thai, boxing, Savate and Jun Fan kickboxing, the class is open to anyone 16 years and up, with those under 18 requiring parental consent.
Hand wraps will be supplied, although participants are encouraged to purchase their own. Classes cost $10 each or $50 for a month.
To sign up or for more information, visit www.InstinctiveDT.ca.

Atom Twisters remain perfect

Gamely aided by their two Miltonians, the North Halton Twisters' C atom girls maintained their perfect record at John Tonelli Sports Centre Saturday — improving to 3-0 with a 2-1 nail-biter over the Woodstock Wildcats.
Erica Cushnie broke a scoreless stalemate near the end of the first period with a thunderous blueline shot that found its way through traffic and past the visiting netminder.
She and fellow Miltonian Dana Walters turned in sound defence over the balance of the contest to hold the Wildcats to a single goal and fend off defeat for another day.
