

Christmas House Tour starts soon

Local residents can start celebrating the holiday season sooner than later with the United Way of Milton's Christmas House Tour next weekend.

The 11th annual event will take place next Friday and Saturday, Nov. 17. Six unique homes in the Milton area that are different in age, size and style will be decorated for the holiday season and available for touring.

Each home incorporates the creative expertise of local interior, exterior and floral designers and offers inspirational and affordable Christmas decorating ideas that residents can use in their own home décor.

This year the tour features a Mattamy 'Green Initiative' home decorated to mark the United Way's 25th anniversary in serving the people of Milton. There will also be a heritage home designed in celebration of the town's 150th anniversary.

The house tour starts next Friday night with buses departing between 4:30 and 7 p.m. Wine and appetizers will be catered by Allison's of Milton at Springridge Farm, where ticket holders will also have an opportunity to get a head start on their Christmas shopping.

On Saturday, there will be a self-directed tour between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. and late afternoon bus tours departing between 3:45 and 5:30 p.m., with food and beverages provided by R. Chef at Van Dongen's Nursery.

The Harrop Restaurant and Gallery will also be offering lunch that day, with a portion of the proceeds going to the United Way of Milton.

Activities for fathers and children will be available on Saturday as well at the Milton Community Resource Centre. Call (905) 876-1244, ext. 10 by Monday to reserve a space.

Self-directed tour tickets cost $25 and are being sold in Milton at A Country Mile, Les Fleurs Kathleen, Brancier's, Café Deda and the United Way of Milton's office at 1 Chris Hadfield Way and at Nesters in Campbellville. Bus tour tickets can also be purchased at the United Way office at a cost of $70 for the Friday night tour and $60 for the Saturday tour.

For more information about the Christmas House Tour and tickets call (905) 875-2550 or visit www.milton.unitedway.ca.
