

Moms organize fundraising Christmas party for kids

A group of moms have banded together to hold a holiday event designed to spread some Christmas cheer in more ways than one.

Women from the Milton Moms website have organized a fundraising children's Christmas party, which will be held November 24 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at the Milton Sports Centre.

Children of all ages and their parents are invited to the party, which will feature crafts, activities, music, food, loot bags for the kids, and more. And of course, no Christmas party would be complete without a visit from Santa himself, and maybe a few of his elves. Party-goers will be invited to have a photo taken with Santa, which is included in the ticket price.

Tickets cost $5 each, and are free for kids aged two and under.

Proceeds from ticket sales, as well as raffles, will go to the Halton Women's Shelter.

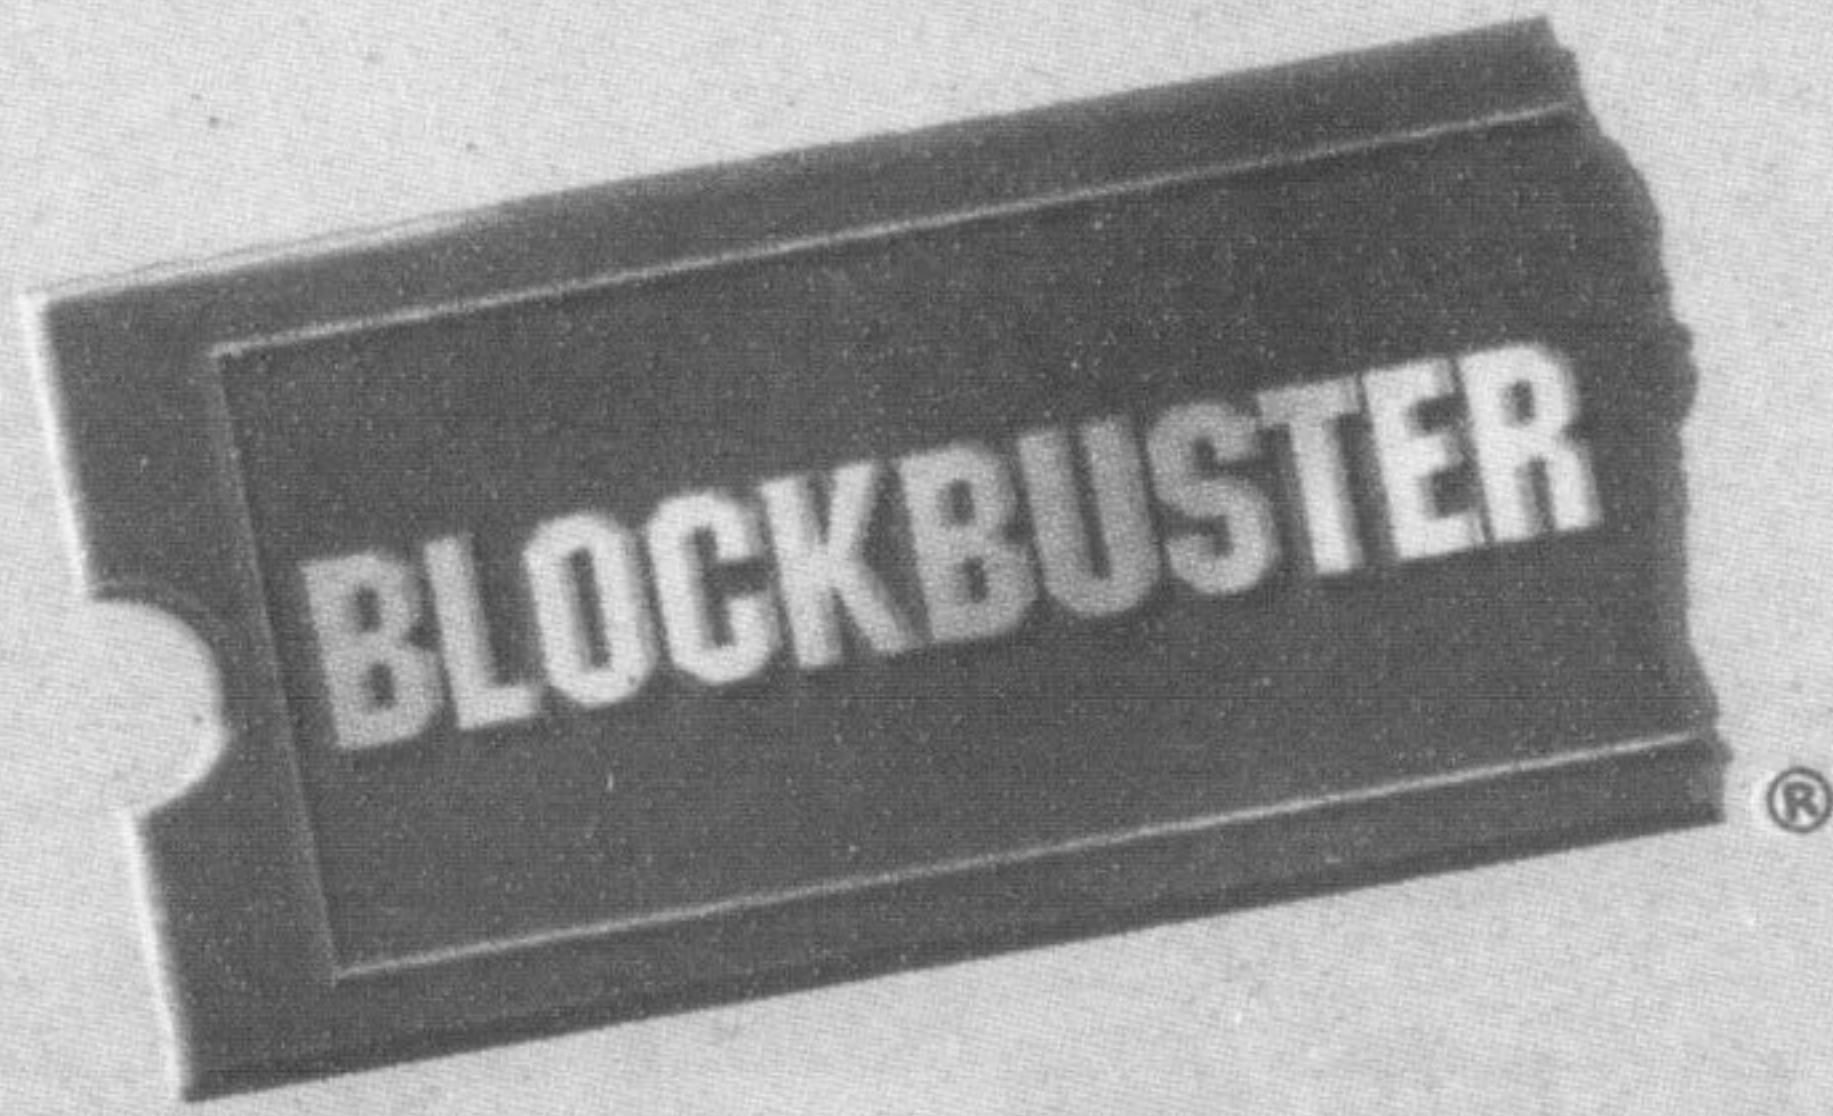

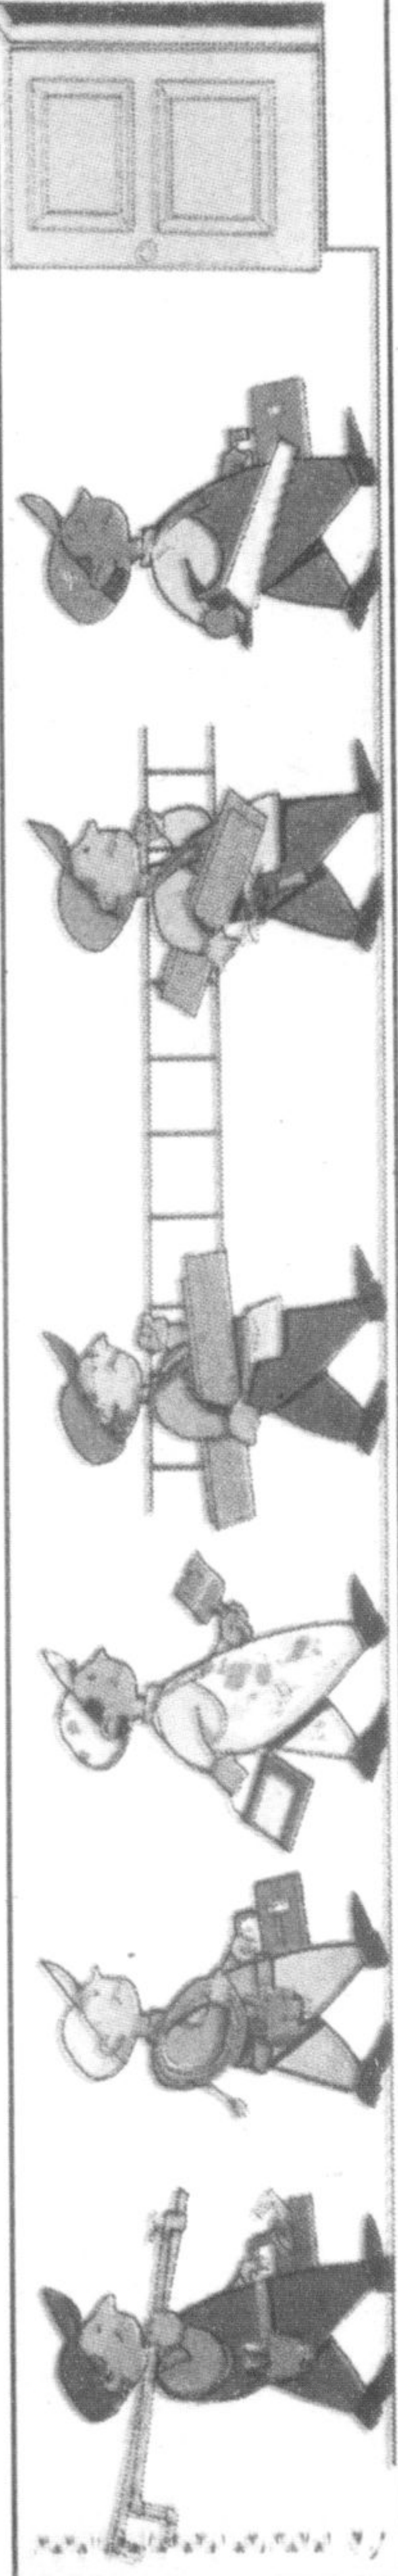

"We love Milton and think this is such a great community. We thought, what better way (to raise money) than to throw a Christmas party for all the kids," said organizer Rebecca Lozer.

Organizers are still looking for businesses and restaurants willing to donate food for the event. Any leftovers will go to the Halton Women's Shelter.

Tickets are available Monday nights from 8:30 to 10 p.m. at the Starbucks on Kennedy Circle, which is where the Milton Mom committee meets. Visit www.haltonmoms.com and click on Milton. Or call (416) 417-4514.

Look in Tuesday's and Friday's paper each week for these features. Delivered to every home in Milton, Campbellville, Hornby.
