GRAHAM PAINE / CANADIAN CHAMPION

STUBBORN BLAZE: Firefighters were still extinguishing hot spots Wednesday morning as heavy equipment was brought in to remove debris following a New Year's Day barn fire on Trafalgar Road north of Derry Road.

Livestock killed in large barn fire

Nine bulls and 50 chickens were killed when a large barn on Trafalgar Road burned to the ground.

Halton Regional Police said the blaze was reported at about 11:20 a.m. Tuesday, and crews from the Milton Fire Department responded to the address, located between Steeles Avenue and Derry Road.

Although some livestock was saved, it wasn't possible to get all the animals out in time.

"It took 20 minutes for the entire structure to burn down," said acting Det. Sgt. Jeff Dunham, adding the barn was full of hay.

The damage is estimated at about $80,000.

So far the cause of the fire is unknown, but police don't believe it's suspicious.
