Business targeted by thieves

Equipment was stolen recently from a Nipissing Road business.

Police said that sometime between 1:30 p.m. Saturday and 6 a.m. Monday, unknown suspects cut a padlock to a storage area at the business.

Once inside, they stole two conveyor belts worth a total of $3,600.

Police said they were most likely stolen for the scrap metal.

School vandalized

Chris Hadfield School was vandalized with graffiti Sunday.

Police said sometime after midnight unknown suspects spray-painted obscene words on eight locations around the school.

The damage is pegged at $350.

Break-in attempted

Bomar Bargain Barn was the scene of an attempted break-in early Monday morning.

Just after 2 a.m., two males were observed at the rear of the Alliance Road store at the loading bay.

Police were called and when they arrived they discovered a rear door had been forced in, but entry hadn't been gained. The suspects had fled.

House ransacked for electronics

Halton Regional Police are investigating a residential break-in.

Sometime during the day December 17, suspects forced open a door to a home on Pettigrew Trail.

Numerous items were stolen including a Toshiba 42-inch LCD TV, Olympus E500 digital camera, Sony camcorder and a gold ring with a jade stone.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other matter, you may be eligible for a cash reward.

You will never have to give your name or testify in court. Crime Stoppers of Halton doesn't subscribe to call display.

Call 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or visit www.haltoncrimestoppers.com.

Recruits sought for Citizen Police Academy

Do you want to learn more about the tactical rescue unit, the forensic identification unit or see what training police officers experience?

The Halton Regional Police Service still has seats available for the 13th session of the Citizen Police Academy, which will start Tuesday.

This program is open to Halton residents 18 years of age and older who are interested in learning about the inner workings and specialized units of the police service.

The Citizen Police Academy is designed to promote a better understanding and knowledge of various police issues, policies and programs that support the community services provided by Halton Regional Police.

The academy is a 12-week program that runs Tuesdays until April 15. Classes are held at the Halton Regional Police headquarters at 1151 Bronte Rd., in Oakville. They run from 7 to 10 p.m.

Those who are interested and would like more information can call Patricia Wildes at (905) 825-4747, ext. 5042.

To join, visit the Milton police station at 490 Childs Dr. to obtain an application form or visit www.hrps.on.ca and click on "volunteer programs."
