

Police board chairs are re-elected

The Halton Regional Police Services Board has announced the re-election of its chair and vice-chair for 2008.

Chair Bob Maich and Vice-Chair Rick Burgess were re-elected to their positions in the Halton Regional Police Services Board in an election held during Thursday's regular board meeting.

This is the second time Maich and Burgess have been elected to their respective positions.

In accepting the opportunity to continue his service Maich thanked the board members for their support and welcomed the opportunity to work with Burgess for another year.

Maich also emphasized the board's ongoing commitment of ensuring the residents of Halton continue to receive a high standard of police service that's effective and highly respected.

Maich has been a member of the board since September 2005 while Burgess has been a member since January 2005.

The Police Services Act requires that every Police Services Board elect a chair and vice-chair at the first meeting of each year.
