

SNOW MUCH FUN: Once it passed and the sun came out, Saturday's storm provided plenty of snow for sledding and tubing at Sixteen Mile Creek Park Sunday morning. Clockwise from top left: Eight-year-old Lexia Hajekerou leaves brother Brandon, 7, behind as the two sled down the hill. Lucas Sharpe, 9, sleds with two tubes, using one as a brake. Six-year-old Said Peco enjoys a ride.

Retiring? Recently Retired? Then you must attend!

The New Retirement!

Buckle up your seatbelts, because Retirement 101 is going to turn stereotypical concepts of aging and retirement on their heads. A day of seminars and discussions, it's the ultimate in educational symposiums for the newly retired and soon-to-be retired. Hear from prominent speakers from the health, housing, finance and travel industries who will discuss and break down stereotypes of aging and retirement.
