

Man charged with drunk driving; cruiser almost hit

Impaired driving charges were laid after a motorist nearly struck a police cruiser and ended up in a snow bank.

Saturday at about 9 p.m., a police cruiser was driving eastbound on Childs Drive at Thompson Road when — while waiting for the light to change — a vehicle turned too quickly onto Childs Drive, nearly striking the cruiser, police said.

The driver over-corrected and drove into a snow bank.

He was arrested.

A 46-year-old Beaver Crescent man has been charged with impaired driving and refusing to provide a breath sample.

Local man wanted

A warrant is out for the arrest of a former Milton man in connection with two wallet thefts.

In the first incident, a vehicle was broken into February 22 while parked at Hilton Falls on No. 5 Sideroad. A wallet was taken and the credit cards used at various stores in Milton and Mississauga.

On February 29, a vehicle parked at Glen

Eden Ski and Snowboard Centre was entered and a purse taken. A credit card from the purse was used four times in Milton, police said.

A 43-year-old man — not yet in police custody — has been charged with six counts of using a stolen credit card.

Man charged in altercation

A local man was charged after an altercation at a Main Street convenience store Saturday at 9:30 p.m.

Police responded to the West End Smoke Shop after a suspect threw a display case out the store, tipped over another and attempted to steal store merchandise.

A 39-year-old Millside Drive man has been charged with mischief and theft under $5,000.

Lexus stolen

A luxury vehicle was stolen from a Dempsey Court driveway overnight March 12.

The vehicle is described as a four-door, silver, 2004 Lexus RX 330 with the licence plate BAXD235.

PoliceBlotter

It's valued at $30,000.

Home broken into

Jewelry and laptop computers were stolen during a First Line break-in the afternoon of March 13.

Police said that sometime between 1 and 4 p.m., unknown suspects forced open a locked door and made off with jewelry, a flat-screen monitor worth $650 and two IBM laptops valued at $2,000 each.

House targeted by thieves

A rural home was broken into March 13. Police said unknown suspects forced open the front door to gain entry to a No. 20 Sideroad home between 1 and 3 p.m.

Stolen were an iPod, baseball cap and a ring valued at a total of $500.

Trailer and load swiped

A trailer and its load were stolen from a Trafalgar Road trucking yard sometime March 13 between 6 and 11 p.m.

Police said the 2007 trailer was large and white, and had the licence plate D2745E. It was carrying $211,000 worth of powdered milk.

Woman charged in theft

A Brampton woman has been charged in connection with the theft of several TVs from Wal-Mart.

On January 4, a suspect — who was caught on video — made off with six flat-screen televisions valued at a total of $1,800, police said.

A 43-year-old woman has been charged with six counts of theft under $5,000 and three counts of breach of probation.
