258 In Memoriam 258 In Memoriam

In remembrance of a loving Husband and Father,
Gary W. Zuest
 January 30, 1963-April 22, 2007

Should you go first and I remain,
 To walk the road alone,
 I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
 With happy days we've known.
 In Spring I'll wait for roses red,
 When fades the lilac blue,
 In early Fall when brown leaves call
 I'll catch a glimpse of you.
 Should you go first and I remain,
 For battles to be fought,
 Each thing you've touched along the way
 Will be a hallowed spot.
 I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile,
 Though blindly I may grope,
 The memory of your helping hand
 Will buoy me on with hope.
 Should you go first and I remain,
 To finish with the scroll,
 No lengthening shadows shall creep in
 To make this life seem dull.
 We've known so much of happiness,
 We've had our cup of joy,
 And memory is one gift of God
 That death cannot destroy.
 Should you go first and I remain,
 One thing I'd have you do:
 Walk slowly down that long, lone path,
 For soon I'll follow you.
 I'll want to know each step you take
 That I may walk the same,
 For some day down that lonely road
 You'll hear me call your name.

Always and 4-ever,
 Jan
 Miss your hugs Dad,
 Love the Gipper

 Husband of the late Elva Norine

Those whom we love go out of sight,
 But never out of mind;
 They are cherished in the hearts
 Of those they leave behind.
 Loving and kind in all his ways,
 Upright and just in all his days;
 Sincere and true in heart and mind,
 Beautiful memories he left behind.

 Much loved Son, Brother, Father, Grandfather

 many happy memories.

JONATHAN GEORGE WOOD
 July 16, 1962 - April 25, 2006

We took our vows together
 Said, "Till death do us part",
 But when God came and took your hand
 My whole world fell apart.
 No one knows the heartache
 I try so hard to hide,
 Only God knows how many times
 I've broken down and cried.
 When I look back upon our lives
 One of the things that makes me glad,
 That you chose me to share with you,
 The precious years we had.

Loving you forever
 Jessie

We little knew that morning
 God was going to call your name,
 In Life we loved you dearly
 In death we do the same.
 It broke our hearts to lose you
 You did not go alone,
 For part of us went with you
 The day God called you home.
 You left us beautiful memories
 Your love is still our guide,
 And although we cannot see you
 You are always at our side.
 Our family chain is broken
 And nothing seems the same,
 But as God calls us one by one
 The chain will link again.

We miss you Daddy
 Love Greg & Georgine

Lynch, Karol

 In loving memory of a dear husband and father

Missing You
 "When the night is silent and it's just me and the lazy moon,
 when the sun breaks free and kisses my face
 with morning lights,
 when I hear a favourite song,
 read an inspiring line,
 laugh at something simple or learn something new,
 I privately save the moments until I can share them again with you.
 You are never further away than my heartbeat
 But I still miss you"

Till we meet again darling,
 Forever in my heart, Sue

Remember him with a smile today,
 He was not one for tears
 Reflect instead on memories,
 Of many happy years.
 Recall to mind the way he spoke,
 Of all the things he said,
 His strength, his jokes, the way he laughed
 Remember these instead.

Always in our hearts, Julia and Justin

In Memoriams in the form

Canadian Cancer Society
