

Free comic book day coming

Potential comic book lovers, listen up. As part of the North American industry's efforts to attract new readers, Wilson Drive's Geekdom will hold a free comic book day next Saturday, May 3.

Specially-printed copies of comics will be given away, while discounts will be offered on back issues and other promotional items.

The only comic store in town, Geekdom will be open from 10:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. for the event.

HERE'S SOME CHANGE FOR THE BUS.

STARTING SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 2008, THERE WILL BE CHANGES TO MILTON GO BUS SERVICE.

New early-morning and late-evening weekday westbound bus trips will depart Union Station GO Bus Terminal, then make various stops in Mississauga and Milton. There are also many new weekday westbound bus trips departing Union Station GO Bus Terminal, running express to Erindale GO Station, then making various stops to Milton.

There will be many changes to existing weekday westbound bus trips including earlier departures and platform changes at Union Station GO Bus Terminal, so be sure to check the new schedule and trip departure boards.

A FUNDRAISER TO SAVOUR: Casey's Milton franchisee Jamie Harland offers up a full rack of ribs to Milton Salvation Army Food Bank volunteer co-ordinator Rob Henson to promote the restaurant's Classic Ribs Day fundraiser.

Ribs Day to aid food bank

Local residents can enjoy some Casey's fare while supporting a good cause at next week's Casey's Classic Ribs Day.

The event — slated for Thursday — will feature a rib tasting station, with proceeds donated to the Milton Salvation Army food bank. Mayor Gord Krantz will also be participating in the festivities, serving up ribs and raising money.

Casey's Classic Ribs Day will help kick off the start of the restaurant's Feed the Soul campaign, which will also raise money for local area food banks.

The campaign, which began on Monday and runs through to Sunday, May 25, will see $1 from every item sold from the Feed the Soul feature menu at the Milton restaurant donated to the Ontario Association of Food Banks and the Milton Salvation Army food bank.
